

SIXTY FIREMEN WILL PARADE AT CONVENTION

Approximately 60 Gettysburg firemen are scheduled to take part in the state firemen's parade Thursday at Lebanon and Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs announced today that the rescue truck will leave the engine house here at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning to provide transportation for those firemen who plan to attend and do not have other means of traveling to Lebanon.

Chief Jacobs reminded firemen today that Gettysburg will be the defending champions in the State Firemen's parade. Two years ago, the town firemen won the title for units with 40 men or more in line at the Scranton convention. No parade was held last year and as a result the local firemen will be defending their title Thursday afternoon.

The Blue and Gray Band of Gettysburg will lead the uniformed firemen in the line of march and the local unit will be in the first division of the parade.

Littlestown Going Too
Local firemen will form at Fourth and Lehman Sts. in Lebanon at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the parade, which is scheduled to be one of the largest ever held at a state convention, to begin at 1:20 o'clock.

Approximately a dozen members of the local fire company have been at Lebanon since Tuesday representing the company at the annual convention session which close with the parade Thursday.

Gettysburg is one of a number of fire companies in this section that will be represented in the state convention procession. Littlestown is also planning to have its uniformed rank in the line of march, accompanied by the Littlestown High School band.

Flying Boxcar Crashes, Four Men Perish

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (A) — A C-119 Flying Boxcar crashed and burned on the Ft. Bragg Reservation today and the Army in Washington said four men were killed. Ten were reported injured.

The Pentagon's preliminary information was that the dead included the pilot and copilot of the big transport, one other member of the crew, and a civilian who was killed on the ground.

An Army spokesman said 10 other Army personnel aboard the plane were "critically injured."

No names were released immediately.

Bound For Olmstead
Washington's report indicated more men were aboard the plane than first reported here.

A public information officer of the 46th Troop Carrier Wing said there were 11 persons aboard. He added that several survived. The extent of their injuries was not immediately known.

The big carrier had just taken off for Olmstead Air Force Base, Pa.

The plane struck in a street near new concrete buildings being built as barracks for the 82nd Airborne Division.

D. B. Burgess, a Fayetteville mechanical engineer employed on the project, said the plane swept low overhead with its left engine afire. He said the plane veered abruptly as if the pilot was attempting to avoid striking a construction area where many men were at work.

The scene of the crash was the Smoke Bomb Hill area of the sprawling Ft. Bragg reservation where another Flying Boxcar, the Parachute plane that is used to transport paratroopers, crashed into a mess hall last March 30. Seven were killed in that crash.

Prison Guards On Strike; Trucks Stopped At Gates

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (A) — A pocket line of 20 striking guards, seeking state recognition of their union, blocked delivery trucks at the gates of the Indiana State Prison today.

The day shift of guards failed to report at 8 a.m., but a union spokesman said the midnight-to-8 shift would stay on duty.

"They'll stay until they get tired," said Roger Bates, a guard identifying himself as "a union official." He wouldn't say what would happen then. He did say no more guards would go in, though all strikers have been threatened with immediate dismissal.

Warden J. Ellis Overide refused to issue any statement but called a news conference.

Fifteen of the pickets were concentrated at the main gate, shivering in chilly, gray autumn weather.

There was no immediate order to alert National Guard troops to go to the prison as added security.

One state police car with two troopers was at the prison, and four more were stationed in downtown Michigan City at police headquarters.

More state troopers were on call at the nearby Dunes Park post.

Viewers' Report In Kane Case Confirmed

Judge W. C. Sheely has confirmed finally the report of the viewers who stated that Maurice W. Kane and wife are entitled to $645 damages from the United Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, for damages to their Franklin Twp. property done while exercising their right of eminent domain.

The telephone company had dug post holes, laid posts, and strung lines across their property, and Kanes filed suit for $5,000 damages. The company admitted that they were liable for some damages, but requested that the court appoint a board of viewers to examine the property and determine the amount. This was done.

The viewers filed a report giving the $645 figure, which Judge Sheely tentatively approved. The Kanes were given 30 days to file exceptions and when none was forthcoming on Monday, he confirmed the report absolutely.

PENN CERAMIC TO HAVE 2ND SHERIFF SALE

Another sheriff's sale is scheduled at the Penn Ceramics Manufacturing company plant at Aspers on Tuesday, October 19, at 1:30 p.m. The plant property was sold at an earlier sheriff's sale there last month.

The new levy was made by Sheriff Dorsey J. Schults Monday afternoon on bids and oaks of clay and about 1,000 boxes of processed and molded tile both in boxes and loose on the premises.

Last Saturday morning, the Penn Ceramic company's office announced raw materials and processed tile there had been sold at public sale at the plant that morning at 9:30 o'clock after having been advertised in The Gettysburg Times the preceding evening.

R. S. Warrenfield, Aspers, was identified as the purchaser at the Saturday morning "sale" at which R. W. Yarmark was auctioneer. On Monday Warrenfield denied he had bought any tile or had been at the sale and subsequent announcements from the Penn Ceramic office listed two other names as the purchasers. The most recent statement named Attorney Emmanuel Kessler, Philadelphia, as the buyer for $710.

The tile and raw materials covered in the sheriff's levy apparently are the same as those "sold" on Saturday.

HUGE BOULDER DAMAGES CAR

Paul C. Myers, Lincoln Square, and his family narrowly escaped serious injury Monday afternoon when a one-ton boulder, loosened by rains, hurtled down a cliff and landed on the highway just in front of Myers' car. Myers braked quickly, but the boulder rolled into his car, damaging it and shaking up the occupants. No one was injured.

The incident occurred on U. S. Route 30, at Irwin, near Pittsburgh. The Lincoln Highway, at that point, was cut through a rock cliff, and the bank of the road, from which the boulder dropped, was estimated by Myers to be about the height of a three-story building. Myers said that he was traveling about 30 miles an hour at the time.

Mrs. Myers was confined to bed briefly, following the accident, but no medical attention was required. The entire front end of the car was smashed, including grill work, radiator, and fenders. Damage was estimated at $300 to $1,000.

STUDENT IN CRASH
Susan Rumberger, 21, Philadelphia, a student at Gettysburg College, was injured this afternoon in an auto accident near the Hanford Sneed Body Shop, five miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway. Physicians had not completed their examination at the Warner Hospital here at press time but it was reported that she would be admitted as a patient at the hospital. State police were investigating the accident and could not be reached for details.

TWO COUPLES ARE LICENSED TO MARRY
The following marriage licenses have been issued by the office of the Clerk of Court:

John L. Hardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Hardman, 79 Steinwehr Ave., and Dorothy Louise Sease, daughter of Mrs. Amaloug H. Sease, 38 E. Middle St.

John I. Strausbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strausbaugh, Hanover, R. 4, and Rose Marie Luckenbaugh, daughter of Maurice L. Luckenbaugh, Hanover, and the late Mrs. Luckenbaugh.

NO HEALTH BD. MEETING
With only a few members appearing for a meeting at the fire engine house, the local Board of Health Tuesday night postponed a formal session until next month.

Secretary Donald Staub reported to the members that no complaints had been received during the month.

BENEDICTION ON TUESDAY NIGHT ENDS 40 HOURS

Rev. Fr. James Miller, who celebrated his first solemn mass at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here Sunday, was celebrant at the solemn benediction closing Forty Hours Adoration services Tuesday night at the church.

Rev. Fr. John McAnulty, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield, was deacon and Rev. Fr. Louis Dougherty, pastor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Abington, was sub-deacon.

Three monsignors and 24 priests were present for the solemn services. The monsignors were the Rev. Msgr. Joseph O'Donnell, head of St. Mary's Seminary; Rev. Msgr. William F. Cullane, vice president of St. Mary's College; and Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, pastor of Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Catholic Church, McSherrystown.

An overflow crowd filled the church for the service which included a procession of the monsignors, priests, members of the Holy Name Society, 40 altar boys and youngsters from the Third and Fourth grades of the parochial school who served as the flower girls.

Rev. Fr. Coomas Boyle, C.P.S., of St. Joseph's Monastery, Baltimore, preached the sermon.

Paul Colsey Calahan was soloist for the singing of "Panis Angelicus" during the service.

WILL SEEK 1,300 GCA MEMBERS

The Gettysburg Concert Association will seek 1,200 members for the forthcoming series of three concerts this winter. It was announced today by Earl Bowen, chairman of the membership campaign committee.

The "Eisenhower jacket" is nothing new, he added, and showed pictures of a similar garb used in the Civil War. He showed covers and division metal badges which he said were the "granddaddy" of the shoulder patches of World War I.

Collection of Ornaments
Mr. Campbell, who entered military service soon after his graduation from Gettysburg College in 1937 and served in the armed forces until 1945 when he joined the Phillips Academy staff, left that position in '53 to become editor of the Phi Kappa Psi magazine.

In addition to the drawings of early uniforms, Mr. Campbell showed his collection of metal hat ornaments and belt buckles used in the Civil War and earlier wars.

A former president, George W. Miller, announced the birth of a daughter today at the Warner Hospital.

A son was born Tuesday at the hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Breighner, 243 York St.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Fenton, North Bergen, N. J., announce the birth of a son, Roger Craig, September 19, at the Margaret Hague Maternity Hospital, Jersey City. This is the couple's first child. Mrs. Fenton is the former Miss Jean Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Edwards, Harrisburg, Pa.

TO PAY RESPECTS
Members of the local lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose will meet this evening at 7 o'clock at the lodge home on York St. to go in a body to the Bender Funeral Home where they will pay their respects to Charles Evans, former lodge governor who died suddenly Tuesday morning.

Rev. Schiebel Is Installed Sunday
Rev. Robert C. Schiebel, former pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Arendtsville, and Florin's Lutheran, McKnightstown, was installed as the new pastor of the Fogelsville, Pa., charge Sunday.

Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor of emeritus of practical theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, and Dr. Charles M. Cooper, president of the Pennsylvania Ministerium, preached the sermons at the service. Dr. Cooper was the installing officer.

A class of 41 members of the Fogelsville charge was confirmed by Pastor Schiebel, among them his daughter, Elizabeth Louise Schiebel. Pastor Schiebel now has 1,100 communicating members in his parish.

A graduate of Gettysburg Academy, Gettysburg College and the local Lutheran Theological Seminary, Rev. Mr. Schiebel began his ministry as pastor of the New Baltimore and Mt. Carmel charge, Hanover. From there he became pastor of the Arendtsville charge, serving as such until May when he accepted the Fogelsville charge.

Married, he is father of two children.

College Will Organize Parents' Association Saturday Afternoon
Continuing a tradition that dates back to 1923, Gettysburg College will hold its annual Parents' Day Weekend on the campus Saturday and Sunday.

Activities will get underway Saturday morning when the fathers visit the classrooms with their sons and daughters. Also scheduled for the morning is a co-ed field hockey game with the Harrisburg Women's Athletic Club.

Following lunch, a busy round of events begins at 1 o'clock when the Gettysburg Army and Air Force ROTC drill teams perform on Memorial Field. Five local high school bands will march in the Adams County Band Review to precede the football game between Gettysburg and Albright.

Immediately after the game, parents will adjourn to Christ Chapel for an organizational meeting of the Gettysburg College Parents' Association.

Assembly In Gym
After dinner, an assembly will be held in the Eddie Plank Memorial Gymnasium. Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, associate professor of Bible, will be master of ceremonies. The

College Grad Says Rebels Needed Blouses, Hats And Buttons As Well As Shoes

"It is often said that the Battle of Gettysburg was fought because of the Confederates' desperate need for shoes but their situation with regard to other parts of their uniform was almost as serious," Major Duncan Campbell, Gettysburg College graduate who is now a staff member of the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum Commission, said Tuesday evening in a talk before the Adams County Historical Society.

"The button situation was critical and a search of any of the present day museums will show that the Southern troops came to Gettysburg with many kinds of buttons on their uniforms, including some that had been used in the War of 1812," he said in his talk on "Military Insignia of the Civil War and Earlier Wars."

"More Confederates came to Gettysburg in homespun buttoned brown than in the gray of their army. Half were barefoot and some had floppy cotton hats. Few wore blouses for this was in July. In fall and spring campaigns the Confederates often wore Union blue jackets turned inside out."

Took Shoes From Dead
"No Confederate could reliably be identified by their pants and many Confederates in the last two days of the fighting here wore Union shoes they had taken from Union dead and wounded after the first day's fighting. The study of Confederate uniforms is fascinating because of the almost endless variety of combinations they used."

Major Campbell used colored illustrations to trace the development of American military uniforms from pre-Revolutionary days through the Civil War. He said none have been distinctively American but have borrowed styles and colors from England, France and Germany in that order.

The "Eisenhower jacket" is nothing new, he added, and showed pictures of a similar garb used in the Civil War. He showed covers and division metal badges which he said were the "granddaddy" of the shoulder patches of World War I.

Mr. Young said his committee has received a suggestion that the Monocacy Rd. across southeastern Adams County, used by Washington and John Adams, be recommended next for marking.

LEAGUE WOMEN SET $50,000 AS GOAL FOR 1955

"The Woman's League of Gettysburg College has set $50,000 as a goal to be reached by 1955, looking toward the conversion of Bruns Chapel into a 'little theatre' where the work of the Department of Dramatic Arts may be most effectively developed," Mrs. Howard O. Walker, York, president of the general league, announced at a meeting of the Gettysburg Sub-League Tuesday afternoon in Christ Lutheran Church.

"So far this year," said Mrs. Walker, "the local organization has contributed nearly $1,600 towards the general fund." She said that the theme for the 1954-55 season will be "Following Through Service" and that the organization will try to increase its membership to at least 5,000 members.

She cited the three-fold purpose of the league: "To care about Gettysburg College and the league; to serve the college and the league; and to know the college and the league."

"There is a great need for Christian leaders," she said, "and the best way to get them is within good Christian families and within good Christian colleges. If we are interested in a Christian College we should be interested in the Woman's League which is organized to help such a college."

Asks for Prayers
"Above all," said Mrs. Walker, "pray for the work of the League. Nothing can be done without prayer. Think about what you did for the organization last year. Think what you will do for it this year."

Mrs. Walker was introduced by Mrs. Frank H. Kramer in the absence of the program director, Miss Ruth Koser, who is ill. There were 50 members in attendance. The session opened with a scriptural reading by Mrs. Harold A. Dunkelberger. She read a poem (Continued on Page 2)

SCOUT EVENTS FOR OCTOBER ARE ANNOUNCED

A number of activities have been scheduled during the current month for scouts and scouters of the Black Walnut District, District Chairman Attorney Eugene Hartman announced today.

Scouts and Explorers will participate in a nature course at Camp Coweago from 5 p.m. Saturday until 3 p.m. Sunday, with Emerson Marge in charge of the camp.

A Council Explorer Roundtable program is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the P. H. Glazewski plant at Spring Grove.

The Black Walnut District meeting will be held October 12 at the office of Attorney Hartman on Baltimore St. at 7:30 o'clock. At that session reports are to be presented by the organizational teams currently seeking to arrange for establishment of more scout units throughout the district. Plans will also be completed for the annual district Christmas party, court of awards and ladies night programs.

Coming Events Listed
October 13 the district roundtable for all scouts, Cub leaders, Scout and Explorer leaders and committees will be held at Camp Coweago starting with a dinner at 6:30 p.m.

October 16 a council "Pow-wow" will be held for adults in the Cub Scout program. The session will be held at the Spring Grove Firehouse from 1:30 to 9 p.m. Program, achievement programs, ceremonies, games and handicrafts are to be discussed and studied at the session.

The council planning conference will be held at Camp Tuckahoe October 23 from 2 until 9 p.m.

October 24 a "Cuboree" will be held at Camp Coweago from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. with Cub Scouts and parents invited to the program of games, stunts and a "twilight ceremony" at which awards will be presented.

October 30 a Halloween party for Explorers and guests will be held at Camp Coweago with prizes for costumes.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Home fires kill more people than all other fires combined, says the National Fire Protection Association. During Fire Prevention Week, (being observed this week), the NFPA urges all members of every family to learn how to combat the six main fire causes. These six are responsible for more than 85 per cent of all home fires:

1—Smoking and careless handling of matches. Put out cigarettes and matches carefully before throwing them away.

2—Dirty and poorly maintained chimneys and heating equipment. A house can catch fire if a dirty chimney shoots sparks onto flammable roofing material. Portable oil heaters and kerosene stoves should not be placed where they might block an exit or where they might easily be tipped over.

3—Defective wiring and overloaded electric circuits. All wiring should be installed by a qualified electrician. Use only 15-ampere fuses unless the circuit is specially wired for larger loads.

4—Hot ashes and coals. Keep them in covered metal containers. Keep the area near a furnace free of combustible materials.

5—Trash accumulation. Remove rubbish regularly from the house, particularly from the cellar, attic and closets.

6—Improper handling of gasoline and kerosene, and use of flammable liquids for home dry-cleaning and paint removing.

The NFPA stresses the importance of making children fire safety-conscious from the earliest years.

The association advises: "Teach them from two years on to distinguish between the right and wrong uses of fire."

"Let them help you with various fire-making activities, such as burning leaves and trash. This will satisfy, in a constructive way, their natural curiosity about fire. Explain to them what you are doing each time you exercise your own common sense in regard to fire safety."

FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association scheduled to be held Thursday evening at Bendersville, has been postponed until Thursday, October 14, because of attendance by a number of chiefs at the state convention this Thursday. At the October 14 meeting John Murren, county fire marshal, will tell of the firemen's participation in the air raid drill later this month.

UN Speaker

Dr. Frank Bohn, Blue Ridge Summit, who will be the speaker at a United Nations Week dinner at Gettysburg High School October 18 to which all of the service clubs of the town have been invited. A member of the American Peace Mission to Versailles, he helped with the founding of the UN after World War II.

MACPHAIL ASKS CLUB SUPPORT OF CHEST DRIVE

Attorney John A. MacPhail, Fund Drive chairman for the Community Chest, addressed the Exchange Club at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday night at Banker's Restaurant.

Urging support for the drive, MacPhail said, "Gettysburg is a good town, with good organizations. We should be proud of our community. But sometimes we must do more than just be proud of it, we must actively aid the community."

The Community Chest, he said, supports six individual organizations, "all of which serve the entire community. The Community Chest would like to add more groups to this list, if possible. But last year our drive fell short of its quota, and we had to dip into our reserve fund. Now we're on the way back."

Mrs. Adelsberger, Emmitsburg, Dies

Mrs. Carrie Adelsberger, 71, widow of former Deputy Sheriff Albert Adelsberger of Emmitsburg, died at 6 o'clock this morning at her home at 130 S. Seton Ave., in Emmitsburg. She had been ill since August 27.

The deceased was a daughter of the late John N. F. and Mary (Stansbury) Miller. She was a member of the Emmitsburg Reformed Church.

Surviving are five daughters: Mrs. L. Rue Harman, Taneytown; Mrs. Irvn Tekar, Mrs. Oldick Rokar and Miss Alice Adelsberger, all of Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Paul Holstover, Indian Head, Md. There are five grandchildren and five great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Anne Love, Emmitsburg.

Funeral services Saturday with brief services at the late home at 9:30 a.m. and further services at 10 o'clock in the Emmitsburg Reformed Church with the pastor, the Rev. Edmund Walker, officiating. Interment in Mountview Cemetery. Friends may call at the home Friday evening.

COUNTY FINED

Johnson Sharpe, Flora Dale, was given a suspended sentence provided he pays $500 for the use of the county, by Judge Mark E. Garber in Cumberland County Court at Carlisle Tuesday. Sharpe had entered a plea of guilty on a charge of driving after suspension of his license.

Many Recommendations Will Be Presented To ULC Meet

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
TORONTO (A)—Representatives of the United Lutheran Church in America met today to decide whether their church needs more "central direction."

This was the key-word in a historical question asked by a delegate from the United States and Canada at the present session of the 10th annual conference of the ULC.

The proposed changes would broaden powers of the church's executive board, lay down lines of authority to subsidiary agencies, coordinate financing and strengthen the president's office.

"Uniform Supervision"
In the historic perspective, they would modify—for the church—some of the loose-knit, diversified controls that developed variously in branches of American Protestantism.

This performance of the oratorio, the second, is open to the public. No admission will be charged but an offering will be received to defray the expenses of bringing the group to the campus.

Some Changes Made
In the remainder of the cases some changes were made—generally a lowering of the assessed valuation by one or two hundred dollars, in some cases less than that, in a few more than that. One assessment was dropped $500, or a drop of $2,000 in the actual.

LONG LIST OF M'SHERRYSTOWN APPEALS ENDS

This afternoon the Adams County Commissioners completed four days of consideration of appeals from assessments in McSherrystown.

Last Friday the commissioners began hearing the McSherrystown appeals and the list of 123 filed Friday, Monday, Tuesday and today. The number was the largest from any one district in the county, and was caused in a large part, according to the commissioners, because of a much lower assessment in the First Ward than in the Second Ward of that borough.

Because the law does not permit change, except on appeals, after the assessment is once set, the lower assessment in the First Ward will continue for the coming year. But the commissioners have promised all appearing before them during the four-day period that a re-assessment will be made of the First Ward of McSherrystown next summer when such change is permitted.

No Changes On 23
Of the appeals in McSherrystown, 123 were from the Second Ward and only two from the First Ward. Since the hearings started the commissioners have been notified by one of the two appellants in the First Ward that he has withdrawn his appeal.

Of the 121 appeals heard up to noon today, the commissioners found that in six cases the appellants did not wish to argue the assessment, they simply wished to report that the property had been sold since assessment time and that someone else now owned the structure.

In 23 appeals no change was made one way or another with the commissioners finding that the property

SIXTY FIREMEN WILL PARADE AT CONVENTION

Approximately 60 Gettysburg firemen are scheduled to take part in the state firemen's parade Thursday at Lebanon and Fire Chief Donald G. Jacobs announced today that the rescue truck will leave the engine house here at 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning to provide transportation for those firemen who plan to attend and do not have other means of traveling to Lebanon.

Chief Jacobs reminded firemen today that Gettysburg will be the defending champions in the State Firemen's parade. Two years ago the town firemen won the title for units with 40 men or more in line at the Scranton convention. No parade was held last year and as a result the local firemen will be defending their title Thursday afternoon.

The Blue and Gray Band of Gettysburg will lead the uniformed firemen in the line of march and the local unit will be in the first division of the parade.

Littlestown Going Too
Local firemen will form at Fourth and Lehman Sts. in Lebanon at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon with the parade, which is scheduled to be one of the largest ever held at a state convention, to begin at 2:30 o'clock.

Approximately a dozen members of the local fire company have been at Lebanon since Tuesday representing the company at the annual convention session which close with the parade Thursday.

Gettysburg is one of a number of fire companies in this section that will be represented in the state convention procession. Littlestown is also planning to have its uniformed rank in the line of march accompanied by the Littlestown High School band.

Flying Boxcar Crashes, Four Men Perish

FT. BRAGG, N.C. (AP) — A C-119 Flying Boxcar crashed and burned on the Ft. Bragg Reservation today and the Army in Washington said four men were killed. Ten were reported injured.

The Pentagon's preliminary information was that the dead included the pilot and copilot of the big transport, one other member of the crew, and a civilian who was killed on the ground.

An Army spokesman said 10 other Army personnel aboard the plane were "critically injured." No names were released immediately.

Washington's report indicated more men were aboard the plane than first reported here.

A public information officer of the 46th Troop Carrier Wing said there were 11 persons aboard. He added that several survived. The extent of their injuries was not immediately known.

The big carrier had just taken off for Almeda Air Force Base, Pa.

The plane struck in a street near new concrete buildings being built as barracks for the 82nd Airborne Division.

D. B. Burgess, a Fayetteville mechanical engineer employed on the project, said the plane swept low overhead with its left engine afire. He said the plane veered abruptly as if the pilot was attempting to avoid striking a construction area where many men were at work.

The scene of the crash was the Smoke Bomb Hill area of the sprawling Ft. Bragg reservation where another Flying Boxcar, the Fairchild plane that is used to transport paratroopers, crashed into a mess hall last March 30. Seven were killed in that crash.

Prison Guards On Strike; Trucks Stopped At Gates

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP) — A picket line of 20 striking guards, seeking state recognition of their union, blocked delivery trucks at the gates of the Indiana State Prison today.

The day shift of guards failed to report at 8 a.m., but a union spokesman said the midnight-to-8 shift would stay on duty.

"They'll stay until they get tired," said Roger Bates, a guard identifying himself as "a union official." He wouldn't say what would happen then. He did say no more guards would go in, though all strikers have been threatened

Viewers' Report In Kane Case Confirmed

Judge W. C. Sheely has confirmed finally the report of the viewers who stated that Maurice W. Kane and wife are entitled to $645 damages from the United Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania, for damages to their Franklin Twp. property done while exercising their right of eminent domain.

The telephone company had dug post holes, laid posts, and strung lines across their property, and the Kanes filed suit for $5,000 damages. The company admitted that they were liable for some damages, but requested that the court appoint a board of viewers to examine the property and determine the amount. This was done.

The viewers filed a report giving the $645 figure, which Judge Sheely tentatively approved. The Kanes were given 30 days to file exceptions and when none was forthcoming by Monday, he confirmed the report absolutely.

PENN CERAMIC TO HAVE 2ND SHERIFF SALE

Another sheriff's sale is scheduled at the Penn Ceramics Manufacturing company plant at Aspers on Tuesday, October 19, at 1:30 p.m. The plant property was sold at an earlier sheriff's sale there last month.

The new levy was made by Sheriff Dorsey J. Schultz Monday afternoon on bins and bags of clay and about 1,000 boxes of processed and mounted tile both in boxes and loose on the premises.

Last Saturday morning, the Penn Ceramic company's office announced raw materials and processed tile there had been sold at public sale at the plant that morning at 9:30 o'clock after having been advertised in The Gettysburg Times the preceding evening.

R. S. Warrenfeltz, Aspers, was identified as the purchaser at the Saturday morning "sale" at which R. W. Yarmark was auctioneer. On Monday Warrenfeltz denied he had bought any tile or had been at the sale and subsequent announcements from the Penn Ceramic office listed two other names as the purchasers. The most recent statement named Attorney Emmanuel Kessler, Philadelphia, as the buyer for $710.

The tile and raw materials covered in the sheriff's levy apparently are the same as those "sold" on Saturday.

HUGE BOULDER DAMAGES CAR

Paul C. Myers, Lincoln Square, and his family narrowly escaped serious injury Monday afternoon when a one-ton boulder, loosened by rains, hurtled down a cliff and landed on the highway just in front of Myers' car. Myers braked quickly, but the boulder rolled into his car, damaging it and shaking up the occupants. No one was injured.

The incident occurred on U. S. Route 30, at Irwin, near Pittsburgh. The Lincoln Highway, at that point, was cut through a rock cliff, and the boulder dropped, was estimated by Myers to be about the height of a three-story building. Myers said that he was traveling about 30 miles an hour at the time.

Myers was confined to bed briefly, following the accident, but no medical attention was required. The entire front end of the car was smashed, including grill work, radiator, and fenders. Damage was estimated at $800 to $1,000.

STUDENT IN CRASH

Susan Rumberger, 21, Phillipsburg, a student at Gettysburg College, was injured this afternoon in an auto accident near the Hansford Sneed Body Shop, five miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway. Physicians had not completed their examination at the Warner Hospital here at press time but it was reported that she would be admitted as a patient at the hospital. State police were investigating the accident and could not be reached for details.

BENEDICTION ON TUESDAY NIGHT ENDS 40 HOURS

Rev. Fr. James Miller, who celebrated his first solemn mass at St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here Sunday, was celebrant at the solemn benediction closing Forty Hours Adoration services Tuesday night at the church.

Rev. Fr. John McNulty, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic Church, Fairfield, was deacon and Rev. Fr. Louis Dougherty, pastor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church, Abbottstown, was sub-deacon.

Three monsignori and 24 priests were present for the solemn services. The monsignori were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph O'Donnell, head of Mt. St. Mary's Seminary; Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Culhane, vice president of Mt. St. Mary's College; and Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, pastor of Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Catholic Church, McSherrystown.

An overflow crowd filled the church for the service which included a procession of the monsignori, priests, members of the Holy Name Society, 40 altar boys and youngsters from the Third and Fourth grades of the parochial school who served as the flower girls.

Rev. Fr. Cosmas Boyle, C.P.S., of St. Joseph's Monastery, Baltimore, preached the sermon.

Paul Colsey Callahan was soloist for the singing of "Panis Angelicus" during the service.

WILL SEEK 1,300 GCA MEMBERS

The Gettysburg Concert Association will seek 1,200 members for the forthcoming series of three concerts this winter, it was announced today by Earl Bowen, chairman of the membership campaign committee.

The "kick-off" dinner will be held in the Hotel Gettysburg Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock at which plans for the week's drive will be outlined and solicitors given their instructions.

Membership tickets will be $6 for adults and $3 for students. This includes tax. All concerts will be given in Christ Chapel on the college campus.

The drive will open at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Headquarters will be established in the lobby of the Hotel Gettysburg and will be staffed from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily. The campaign will close at 6 o'clock Saturday night.

The feature attraction this year will be William Warfield, noted negro baritone. He will be remembered for his portrayal of Joe and his singing of "Old Man River" in the movie, "Showboat."

The date of this concert will be announced later.

Rev. Schiebel Is Installed Sunday

Rev. Robert C. Schiebel, former pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Arendtsville, and Flohr's Lutheran, McKnightstown, was installed as the new pastor of the Fogelsville, Pa., charge Sunday.

Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor, emeritus of practical theology at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary, and Dr. Charles M. Cooper, president of the Pennsylvania Ministerium, preached the sermons at the service. Dr. Cooper was the installing officer.

A class of 41 members of the Fogelsville charge was confirmed by Pastor Schiebel, among them his daughter, Elizabeth Louise Schiebel. Pastor Schiebel now has 1,100 communing members in his parish.

A graduate of Gettysburg Academy, Gettysburg College and the local Lutheran Theological Seminary, Rev. Mr. Schiebel began his ministry as pastor of the New Baltimore and Mt. Carmel charge, Hanover. From there he became pastor of the Arendtsville charge, serving as such until May when he accepted the Fogelsville charge pastorate. Married, he is father of two children.

College Will Organize Parents' Association Saturday Afternoon

Continuing a tradition that dates back to 1925, Gettysburg College will hold its annual Fathers' Day Weekend on the campus Saturday and Sunday.

Activities will get underway Saturday morning when the fathers visit the classrooms with their sons and daughters. Also scheduled for the morning is a co-ed field hockey game with the Harrisburg Women's Athletic Club.

Following lunch, a busy round of events begins at 1 o'clock when the Gettysburg Agny and Air Force ROTC drill teams perform on Memorial Field. Five local high school bands will march in the Adams County Band Review to precede the football game between Gettysburg and Albright.

Assembly In Gym

After dinner, an assembly will be held in the Eddie Plank Memorial Gymnasium. Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, associate professor of Bible, will be master of ceremonies. The

College Grad Says Rebels Needed Blouses, Hats And Buttons As Well As Shoes

"It is often said that the Battle of Gettysburg was fought because of the Confederates' desperate need for shoes but their situation with regard to other parts of their uniform was almost as serious," Major Duncan Campbell, Gettysburg College graduate who is now a staff member of the Pennsylvania Historic and Museum Commission, said Tuesday evening in a talk before the Adams County Historical Society.

"The button situation was critical and a search of any of the present day museums will show that the Southern troops came to Gettysburg with many kinds of buttons on their uniforms, including some that had been used in the War of 1812," he said in his talk on "Military Insignia of the Civil and Earlier Wars."

"More Confederates came to Gettysburg in homespun butternut brown than in the gray of their army. Half were hatless and some had floppy cotton hats. Few wore blouses for this was in July. In fall and spring campaigns the Confederates often wore Union blue jackets turned inside out."

Took Shoes from Dead
"No Confederate could reliably be identified by their pants and many Confederates in the last two days of the fighting here wore Union shoes they had taken from Union dead and wounded after the first day's fighting. The study of Confederate uniforms is fascinating because of the almost endless variety of combinations they used."

Major Campbell used colored illustrations to trace the development of American military uniforms from pre-Revolutionary days through the Civil War. He said none have been distinctively American but have borrowed styles and colors from England, France and Germany in that order.

The "Eisenhower jacket" is nothing new, he added, and showed pictures of a similar garb used in the Civil War. He showed corps and division metal badges which he said were the "granddaddy" of the shoulder patches of World War I.

Collection of Ornaments

Mr. Campbell, who entered military service soon after his graduation from Gettysburg College in 1937 and served in the armed forces until 1946 when he joined the Harrisburg Academy staff, left that position in '53 to become editor of the Phi Kappa Psi magazine.

In addition to the drawings of early uniforms, Mr. Campbell showed his collection of metal hat ornaments and belt buckles used in the Civil War and earlier wars. A former president, George W.

Home fires kill more people than all other fires combined, says the National Fire Protection Association. During Fire Prevention Week, (being observed this week), the NFPA urges all members of every family to learn how to combat the six main fire causes. These six are responsible for more than 85 per cent of all home fires:

- 1—Smoking and careless handling of matches. Put out cigarettes and matches carefully before throwing them away.
- 2—Dirty and poorly maintained chimneys and heating equipment. A house can catch fire if a dirty chimney shoots sparks onto flammable roofing material. Portable oil heaters and kerosene stoves should not be placed where they might block an exit or where they might easily be tipped over.
- 3—Defective wiring and overloaded electric circuits. All wiring should be installed by a qualified electrician. Use only 15-ampere fuses unless the circuit is specially wired for larger loads.
- 4—Hot ashes and coals. Keep them in covered metal containers. Keep the area near a furnace free of combustible materials.
- 5—Trash accumulation. Remove rubbish regularly from the house, particularly from the cellar, attic and closets.
- 6—Improper handling of gasoline and kerosene, and use of flammable liquids for home drying, cleaning and paint removing.

The NFPA stresses the importance of making children fire safety-conscious from the earliest years.

The association advises, "Teach them from two years on to distinguish between the right and wrong uses of fire."

"Let them help you with various fire-making activities, such as burning leaves and trash. This will satisfy, in a constructive way, their natural curiosity about fire. Explain to them what you are doing each time you exercise your own common sense in regard to fire safety."

FIRE CHIEFS TO MEET

The regular meeting of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association scheduled to be held Thursday evening at Bendersville, has been postponed until Thursday, October 14, because of attendance by a number of chiefs at the state convention this Thursday. At the October 14 meeting John Murren, county fire marshal, will tell of the firemen's participation in the air raid drill later this month.

LEAGUE WOMEN SET $50,000 AS GOAL FOR 1955

"The Woman's League of Gettysburg College has set $50,000 as a goal to be reached by 1955, looking toward the conversion of Bruns Chapel into a 'little theatre' where the work of the Department of Dramatic Arts may be most effectively developed," Mrs. Howard O. Walker, York, president of the general league, announced at a meeting of the Gettysburg Sub-League Tuesday afternoon in Christ Lutheran Church.

"So far this year," said Mrs. Walker, "the local organization has contributed nearly $1,600 towards the general fund." She said that the theme for the 1954-55 season will be "Following Through Service" and that the organization will try to increase its membership to at least 5,000 members.

She cited the three-fold purpose of the league: "To care about Gettysburg College and the league; to serve the college and the league; and to know the college and the league."

"There is a great need for Christian leaders," she said, "and the best way to get them is within good Christian families and within good Christian colleges. If we are interested in a Christian College we should be interested in the Woman's League which is organized to help such a college."

Place Other Markers

He acknowledged the assistance given by Dr. Henry Stewart in supplying information to the state in preparation for the placing of that and other markers. He said the Manor of Maske boundaries have been marked on the Lincoln Highway and the old court house and Thaddeus Stevens' home sites have been marked in Gettysburg during the last summer.

Mr. Young said his committee has received a suggestion that the Monocacy Rd. across southeastern Adams County, used by Washington and John Adams, be recommended next for marking.

SCOUT EVENTS FOR OCTOBER ARE ANNOUNCED

A number of activities have been scheduled during the current month for scouts and scouters of the Black Walnut District, District Chairman Attorney Eugene Hartman announced today.

Scouts and Explorers will participate in a nature course at Camp Conewago from 2 p.m. Saturday until 3 p.m. Sunday, with Emerson Mangle in charge of the camp.

A Council Explorer Roundtable program is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the P. H. Glatfelter plant at Spring Grove.

The Black Walnut District meeting will be held October 12 at the office of Attorney Hartman on Baltimore St. at 7:30 o'clock. At that session reports are to be presented by the organizational teams currently seeking to arrange for establishment of more scout units throughout the district. Plans will also be completed for the annual district Christmas party, court of awards and ladies night programs.

Many Recommendations Will Be Presented To ULC Meet

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
TORONTO (AP)—Representatives of the United Lutheran Church in America met today to decide whether their church needs more central direction.

That was the key—and historical—controversial question before the denomination's eight-day 19th biennial convention.

As 667 clerical and lay delegates from the United States and Canada gathered for the opening session, one churchman phrased the problem this way:

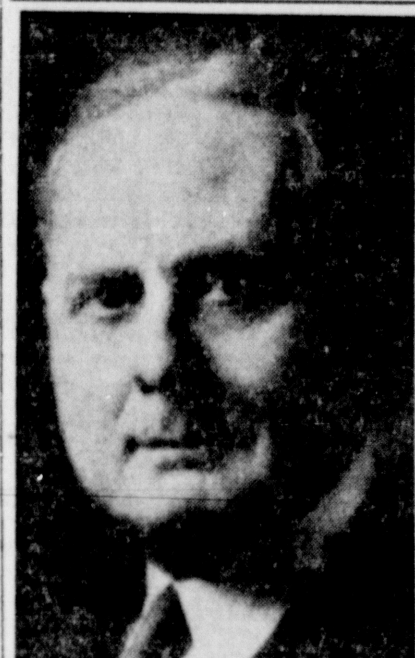

"It's a matter of whether we're going to be a church or an association."

Up for consideration by the convention was a sweeping series of recommendations, worked out by a two-year study commission, which would unify and standardize a wide range of church functions.

MACPHAIL ASKS CLUB SUPPORT OF CHEST DRIVE

Attorney John A. MacPhail, Fund Drive chairman for the Community Chest, addressed the Exchange Club at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday night at Banker's Restaurant.

Urging support for the drive, MacPhail said, "Gettysburg is a good town, with good organizations. We should be proud of our community. But sometimes we must do more than just be proud of it, we must actively aid the community."

The Community Chest, he said, supports six individual organizations, "all of which serve the entire community. The Community Chest would like to add more groups to this list, if possible. But last year our drive fell short of its quota, and we had to dip into our reserve fund. Now we're on the way back."

"I ask you men, individually, to do three things," MacPhail continued.

Mrs. Adelsberger, Emmitsburg, Dies

Mrs. Carrie Adelsberger, 71, widow of former Deputy Sheriff Albert Adelsberger of Emmitsburg, died at 6 o'clock this morning at her home at 110 S. Seton Ave. in Emmitsburg. She had been ill since August 27.

The deceased was a daughter of the late John N. F. and Mary (Stansbury) Miller. She was a member of the Emmitsburg Reformed Church.

Surviving are five daughters: Mrs. La Rue Harman, Taneytown; Mrs. Irvin Tokar, Mrs. Oldrick Rokar and Miss Alice Adelsberger, all of Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Paul Hofstetter, Indian Head, Md. There are five grandchildren and five great grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Annie Lowe, Emmitsburg.

ORATORIO WILL BE SUNG HERE

"Job, Man of God," an oratorio, will be presented in Christ Chapel on the Gettysburg College campus Sunday evening, October 24, at 7:30 o'clock by the combined choruses of Trinity Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, and Emmanuel Church, Souderton, Pa.

It will be directed by the composer, Catherine Delsher Baxter, who will be at the console of the organ, given the college by the Woman's League.

Soloists for the oratorio, all members of Philadelphia opera companies, will be: Soprano, Barbara Hyase; alto, Mae Spong; tenor, Ernest Baxter.

Besides the organ, the chorus of 70 voices will be accompanied by Nanette Norton on the harp, Elaine Hoffman on the tympani and Arthur William Eblschbach on the trumpet.

This performance of the oratorio, its second, is open to the public. No admission will be charged but an offering will be received to defray the expenses of bringing the group to the campus.

Its president, Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York, said in his report to the convention that the present pattern of church government should be tested against this equation:

"Is authority equal to responsibility? In terms of the framework of our church ... do the tools given to each board, commission, committee and officer match the job?"

The proposed changes would broaden powers of the church's executive board, lay down lines of authority to subsidiary agencies, coordinate financing and strengthen the president's office.

DISCUSS NEW SCOUT TROOP

Establishment of a Boy Scout Troop in Fairfield was outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Fairfield Lions Club by Attorney Daniel E. Tetter and Charles S. Harris.

Tetter, a member of the York-Adams Area Boy Scout Council, gave details to the Lions at their dinner meeting at B. E. Benner's farm, Fairfield, on the activities that are carried out by Boy Scout troops, including service to the community in various events.

Harris, field executive of the Boy Scouts for this area outlined the work of organizations that sponsor Boy Scout troops and the duties and composition of troop committees provided by the sponsoring institutions.

Fairfield at the present time does not have a Boy Scout troop.

anism, and bring them under more uniform supervision.

Although Dr. Fry neither opposed nor supported the changes directly in his report, he declared that the present structure "puts a gulf between the church-at-large and the congregations."

Under a strict interpretation of the setup now, he asserted, "the officers of the church have no right to act, or even to give advice, in internal congregational affairs."

They're "equally without power" concerning church boards and departments, he said.

And the church's Executive Board, he added, is authorized to carry out only specific convention mandates, with "no jurisdiction at all" to rege a "good project or to block a detrimental one" by the various self-governing church agencies.

FILE OBJECTION IN ACTION OVER BILL FOR $6,194

Attorneys for the owners of Moore Farms, Lancaster, filed an objection Tuesday to the counterclaims of D. H. Sharrer & Son, New Oxford R. 2, whom they are suing for nonpayment of a bill. The nineteen-point objection asks for further specifications of the defendant's claims that the merchandise delivered by Moore Farms, four loads of baby chicks, was diseased.

The original action in assumpsit was filed June 24, by Floyd H. and Irene B. Moore, doing business as Moore Farms, against Melvin M. and Susanna M. Sharrer, doing business as D. H. Sharrer & Son. The Moores stated that the Sharrers had refused to pay $6,194 for 31,600 baby chicks, delivered to the Sharrers in four batches in November, 1953.

The Sharrers' counterclaim, filed August 23, stated that the chicks were not healthy and free of disease, as had been orally guaranteed, according to the defendants, that about 6,000 of them had died, and that most of the remainder were undernourished and in ill health. They stated that the related expenses and loss of business had cost them $30,378.46, and asked, in turn, for a judgment for that amount.

The Moores' objection to this counterclaim complains of its vagueness, and asks the Sharrers to specify of what precise diseases the chicks died, the reasons why the remainder are in ill health, and when each of the defects was first noted.

Most of the chicks have been resold by the Sharrers to other dealers and growers, and a part of their counterclaim consisted of sworn statements from these purchasers as to the condition of the chicks.

made after an execution writ was issued out of the office of Prothonotary Wayne K. Shields on a claim by the Bendersville National Bank, the First National Bank of Gettysburg, the Gettysburg and Biglerville National Banks. The banks claim a debt of $749.97 plus interest. The four banks were the same who brought about the September sheriff sale. At that sale the property was bought by Mrs. Rose Yarmark, Riverdale, N. Y., mother of Ronald Yarmark who had been operating the Penn Ceramic company. Since that sheriff's sale Yarmark resigned his position with Penn Ceramic to take the presidency of the newly-formed National Ceramic Corporation.

DISCUSS NEW SCOUT TROOP

Establishment of a Boy Scout Troop in Fairfield was outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Fairfield Lions Club by Attorney Daniel E. Tetter and Charles S. Harris.

Teeter, a member of the York-Adams Area Boy Scout Council, gave details to the Lions at their dinner meeting at B. E. Benner's farm, Fairfield, on the activities that are carried out by Boy Scout troops, including service to the community in various events.

Harris, field executive of the Boy Scouts for this area outlined the work of organizations that sponsor Boy Scout troops and the duties and composition of troop committees provided by the sponsoring institutions.

Fairfield at the present time does not have a Boy Scout troop.

tantism, and bring them under more uniform supervision.

Although Dr. Fry neither opposed nor supported the changes directly in his report, he declared that the present structure "puts a gulf between the church-at-large and the congregations."

Under a strict interpretation of the setup now, he asserted, "the officers of the church have no right to act, or even to give advice, in internal congregational affairs."

They're "equally without power" concerning church boards and departments, he said. And the church's Executive Board, he added, is authorized to carry out only specific convention mandates, with "no jurisdiction at all" to raze a "good project or to block a self-governing church agencies."

250 Attend Food-Fashion Show Held In Littlestown By Woman's Community Club

More than 250 women attended the Food and Fashion Revue held in the Littlestown High School auditorium Tuesday evening. The Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity sponsored the event with local gas appliance dealers as co-sponsors.

The stage of the auditorium was decorated with ferns and cut flowers and featured a Bendix gas clothes dryer, a Universal gas incinerator, a Magic Chef gas range, a Tappan automatic gas range and a Servel gas refrigerator. It donated for use in the cooking school by the cooperating gas merchants of Littlestown and vicinity. Other gas appliances were on display in the halls of the school.

Mrs. Luther Ritter, president of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown, introduced Harold Miller, representative of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg, who served as master of ceremonies.

Gives Food Demonstration
Miss Margaret Easley, Littlestown, home economist for the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, prepared and explained the preparation of food. Miss Easley, assisted by Miss Sylvia Steine, first made a Lady Baltimore cake, filled with a seven-minute frosting mixed with nuts and fruit and topped with English Walnuts and cherries. From the same recipe, she presented a special Halloween cake for children.

Other recipes prepared by the home economist included an oven meal consisting of oven-fried chicken, succotash, hash creamed potatoes and hot honey peaches, and a broiled meal, including meat patties, hashed brown potatoes and glazed carrots.

Miss Easley also prepared a broiled sirloin steak, a modified version of pizza pie and a molded vegetable salad.

Morning, afternoon and dressy fashions were modeled by the following: Lorraine Snyder, Marybel Marshman, Susie Long, Mrs. John Peaser Jr., Mrs. Betty Ebaugh and Mrs. Carroll Arter. The clothing was provided by Tobey's, Gettysburg.

Additional Models

The following children modeled morning and afternoon clothes provided by the Rose-Ella Infant and Tot Shop, Littlestown; Carolyn Breighner, Jane Basehor, Sally Bankert, Jay Evans and Jill Weikert.

Door prizes awarded included: A six-quart meat pressure cooker from the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg; Dorothy E. Martin, Westminster R. 4; a Pyrex utility set from the Town and Country Gas Service, Inc., Taneytown, Mrs. R. Guy Linn, Littlestown R. 2; an electric whipper from Vernon Reaver, Littlestown; Mrs. Edward H. Brown, Littlestown; a 10-inch Revere Ware skillet from Zerting's Appliance Store, Littlestown; Mrs. Myrtle Kroh, Littlestown; a Borg bathroom scales from Stanley B. Stover, Littlestown; Mrs. Harold L. Mori, Westminster; and a Cosco stool from Ecker's Furniture Store, Littlestown; Mrs. Donald Sheely, Littlestown.

Award Winners

Food prepared on the program was awarded to the following: Mrs. Guy Lemmon, Westminster; Lady Baltimore cake: Mrs. Robert P. Pfaff, Littlestown; oven-fried chicken dinner: Barbara Ripka, Littlestown; The Broiler Quicky: Mrs. Noah Snyder, Littlestown; modified pizza pie: Janice Maitland, Littlestown; crooked steak: Mrs. Mervin Legore, Littlestown; molded vegetable salad: Mrs. Leroy Bish, Littlestown; hashed cream potatoes and honey peaches, and Mrs. Jane F. committee on neglected cemeteries, raised a question in his report as to whether there ever was a cemetery at the old Hill Church in southwestern Adams County. Opinions differ on the point, he declared. He said he hopes college and high school students again will undertake cemetery cleanup projects as they did last spring at Pine Bank and Round Hill. A letter of appreciation for that work was read from the Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Veterans.

Reporting for the Genealogical Committee, Mrs. George Ditchburn announced acquisition of a history of the York Springs Methodist Charge, which she said, is being bound.

Express Appreciation
Mrs. Ditchburn invited contributions of church, family and cemetery records and said they will be microfilmed by the York County Historical Society and a copy furnished the local unit.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh expressed appreciation for the services of Mrs. Ditchburn, Miss Margaret McMillan and Mrs. Victor Dunner in developing the genealogical section in the society's museum. Dr. Fortenbaugh also acknowledged donations of historical items by Maurice Stallsmith including many early photographs of the town and a charter membership roll of the Lenox post of the American Legion; a genealogy of the Allen family from W. W. Eisenhart; and a number of items from Mrs. Dunner. A large photo of the cornerstone laying ceremonies at Glatfelter Hall on the college campus in 1888, donated by Alex's Christman, also was shown.

Mr. Campbell, guest speaker who was introduced by Dr. Frederick Tibberg, will be remembered locally by many as the husband of the former Miss Margaret Hanawalt whose family lived here from 1935 to 1945.

CLEARWATER LAKE PLANNED AT NEW OXFORD

New Oxford council will continue its study of establishing a "clearwater lake" to provide a better supply of water for the community, according to reports presented at Monday evening's meeting in the administrative office of the community fire company building.

R. W. Wolfe, member of council and an engineer for the Aero Oil Co., reported that a preliminary survey indicated "favorable possibilities" for constructing a clearwater lake near the pumping station. Council is considering construction of a lake as a reservoir for a supply of water that would last the community for at least 30 days in the event of a water shortage, and would permit water to be drawn from the creek while it is clear and thus the town would always have a clear water supply, with the lake also serving as a settling basin. At present the water is drawn directly from the creek, whether cloudy or not, and sent into the mains after chemical treatment. The report showed that a 300 by 400 foot lake, eight feet in depth, could be constructed on land near the present pumping station. The study is being continued however with final report and action by council scheduled for the future.

May Cut Costs
Wolfe reported a brief preliminary study showed that some changes in the pumping equipment and its operation would effect "considerable savings" in power costs. He added that further study will be made before a final report is given.

Arthur C. Paradie, Baltimore, representing the Dixie Tank and Bridge Co., told council that his company could scale the paint from the standpipe and repaint the structure, inside and out, for "about $1,000." Other repairs that might be necessary would be in addition to that figure, he said. No action was taken by council on the matter. The standpipe was last painted about five years ago. The property committee was authorized to secure further bids for repairs to the skylights at the water plant after only one bid was received for the work.

The Metropolitan Edison Co. will be asked, council voted, to move a pole at the corner of Hanover St. and W. High St. which council said "interferes with traffic moving south on Hanover St. to negotiate the turn on to W. High St."

Council was informed that the state inspector has approved the improvement to the street at E. High St. and W. Golden Lane.

President Fred C. Klunk presided at the meeting with Councilmen H. S. Griffin, A. W. Rohrbaugh, John P. Smith, Paul H. Harbaugh, Cletus J. Billman and R. W. Wolfe in attendance. Also attending were Borough Manager Lawrence C. Bevan, Burgess Guy A. Staud, Officers Walter B. Benninger and Secretary C. P. Keefe. Bills totalling $2,833.76 were approved.

Dr. Hoover Tells Of Evanston Meet

The Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor emeritus of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, presented a paper on the accomplishments of the World Council of Churches at Evanston, Ill., at the meeting of the Adams County Ministerium Monday in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church. Devotions were in charge of the Rev. Mark Michael, Fairfield. The president, the Rev. Archie Rohrbaugh, New Oxford, received a report from the Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., pastor of the Gettysburg Methodist Church, chairman of the Chaplaincy Committee for the Anne M. Warner Hospital. He stated that one minister will serve as the hospital chaplain for an entire week, from Wednesday to Wednesday. The program is scheduled to start today.

250 Attend Food-Fashion Show Held In Littlestown By Woman's Community Club

More than 250 women attended the Food and Fashion Revue held in the Littlestown High School auditorium Tuesday evening. The Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity sponsored the event with local gas appliance dealers as co-sponsors.

The stage of the auditorium was decorated with ferns and cut flowers and featured a Bendix gas clothes dryer, a Universal gas incinerator, a Magic Chef gas range, a Tappan automatic gas range and a Servel gas refrigerator. It donated for use in the cooking school by the cooperating gas merchants of Littlestown and vicinity. Other gas appliances were on display in the halls of the school.

Mrs. Luther Ritter, president of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown, introduced Harold Miller, representative of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Gettysburg, who served as master of ceremonies.

Gives Food Demonstration

Miss Margaret Easley, Pittsburg, home economist for the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, prepared and explained the preparation of food. Miss Easley, assisted by Miss Sylvia Steimle, first made a Lady Baltimore cake, filled with a seven-minute frosting mixed with nuts and fruit and topped with English Walnuts and cherries. From the same recipe, she presented a special Halloween cake for children.

Other recipes prepared by the home economist included an oven meal consisting of oven-fried chicken, succotash, hash creamed potatoes and hot honey peaches, and a broiled meal, including meat patties, hashed brown potatoes and glazed carrots.

Morning, afternoon and dressy fashions were modeled by the following adults: Lorraine Snyder, Marybel Marshman, Susie Long, Mrs. John Peaser Jr., Mrs. Betty committee on neglected cemeteries, raised a question in his report as to whether there ever was a cemetery at the old Hill Church in southwestern Adams County. Opinions differ on the point, he declared. He said he hopes college and high school students again will undertake cemetery cleanup projects as they did last spring at Pine Bank and Round Hill. A letter of appreciation for that work was read from the Gettysburg Camp of the Sons of Veterans.

Reporting for the Genealogical Committee, Mrs. George Ditchburn announced acquisition of a history of the York Springs Methodist Charge, which she said, is being bound.

Express Appreciation

Mrs. Ditchburn invited contributions of church, family and cemetery records and said they will be microfilmed by the York County Historical Society and a copy furnished the local unit.

Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh expressed appreciation for the services of Mrs. Ditchburn, Miss Margaret McMillan and Mrs. Victor Dutta in developing the genealogical section in the society's museum. Dr. Fortenbaugh also acknowledged donations of historical items by Maurice Stallsmith including many early photographs of the town and a charter membership roll of the Lentz post of the American Legion; a genealogy of the Alleman family from W. W. Eisenhart and a number of items from Mrs. Dutta. A large photo of the cornerstone laying ceremonies at Glatfelter Hall on the college campus in 1888, donated by Alexis Chritzman, also was shown.

Mr. Campbell, guest speaker who was introduced by Dr. Frederick Tilberg, will be remembered locally by many as the husband of the former Miss Margaret Hanawalt whose family lived here from 1935 to 1945.

CLEARWATER LAKE PLANNED AT NEW OXFORD

New Oxford council will continue its study of establishing a "clearwater lake" to provide a better supply of water for the community, according to reports presented at Monday evening's meeting in the administrative office of the community fire company building.

R. W. Wolfe, member of council and an engineer for the Aero Oil Co., reported that a preliminary survey indicated "favorable possibilities" for constructing a clearwater lake near the pumping station. Council is considering construction of a lake as a reservoir for a supply of water that would last the community for at least 30 days in the event of a water shortage, and would permit water to be drawn from the creek while it is clear and thus the town would always have a clear water supply, with the lake also serving as a settling basin. At present the water is drawn directly from the creek, whether cloudy or not, and sent into the mains after chemical treatment. The report showed that a 300 by 400 foot lake, eight feet in depth, could be constructed on land near the present pumping station. The study is being continued however with final report and action by council scheduled for the future.

May Cut Costs

Wolfe reported a brief preliminary study showed that some changes in the pumping equipment and its operation would effect "considerable savings" in power costs. He added that further study will be made before a final report is given.

Arthur C. Parade, Baltimore, representing the Dixie Tank and Bridge Co., told council that his company could scale the paint from the standpipe and repaint the structure, inside and out, for "about $1,000." Other repairs that might be necessary would be in addition to that figure, he said. No action was taken by council on the matter. The standpipe was last painted about five years ago.

The property committee was authorized to secure further bids for repairs to the skylights at the water plant after only one bid was received for the work.

The Metropolitan Edison Co. will be asked, council voted, to move a pole at the corner of Hanover St. and W. High St. which, council said, "interferes with traffic moving south on Hanover St. to negotiate the turn on to W. High St."

Council was informed that the state inspector has approved the improvement to the street at E. High St. and W. Golden Lane.

President Fred G. Klunk presided at the meeting with Councilmen H. S. Griffin, A. W. Rohrbaugh, John P. Smith, Paul H. Harbaugh, Cletus J. Billman and R. W. Wolfe in attendance. Also attending were Borough Manager Lawrence C. Bevenour, Burgess Guy A. Staub, Officers Walter E. Bemiller and Secretary C. P. Keefer. Bills totalling $2,833.76 were approved.

Dr. Hoover Tells Of Evanston Meet

The Rev. Dr. Harvey D. Hoover, professor emeritus of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, presented a paper on the accomplishments of the World Council of Churches at Evanston, Ill., at the meeting of the Adams County Ministerium Monday in Trinity Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Devotions were in charge of the Rev. Mark Michael, Fairfield. The president, the Rev. Archie Rohrbaugh, New Oxford, received a report from the Rev. Victor K. Meredith Jr., pastor of the Gettysburg Methodist Church, chairman of the Chaplaincy Committee for the Annie M. Warner Hospital. He stated that one minister will serve as the hospital chaplain for an entire week, from Wednesday to Wednesday. The program is scheduled to start today.

Littlestown LIST PLANS FOR FUTURE EVENTS

Plans were completed for a plastic and paper demonstration at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Alpha Fire Company No. 1, Littlestown, held on Monday evening at the engine house. The demonstration will take place on Monday, Oct. 18, at 8 p.m. in the engine house and the public is invited to attend. Another public affair to be held by the Auxiliary in the future, will be a corn party on November 19 in the engine house. Prizes will include turkeys and ducks.

Fifteen members were present at the October session, which opened with the group singing of "America" and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Mrs. Bernadine Rickrode, president, presided, and reports were heard from Mrs. Ruth Fuhrman, secretary and Mrs. Dorothy Burgoon, treasurer.

The guest package was contributed by Mrs. Betty Kauffman and was received by Mrs. Catherine Flickinger. It was decided to hold a Halloween party in conjunction with the next meeting on Monday, November 1, and all members were urged to attend in costume. The November hostess committee includes Mrs. Mary Arnold, Mrs. Mildred Wherley, Mrs. Lela Storm and Mrs. Ruth Crouse. A white elephant party was held during the social hour, and refreshments were served by the October hostess.

Lary Newell.

Today's Talk
JUST TO PLEASE
It should thrill and give spiritual comfort to each one of us whenever we are given the opportunity, or when we create the opportunity, whereby we please and give joy to someone else. We even should delight in pleasing ourselves, for then we could not help but pass the surplus around!
It is impossible to please someone else without enriching one's own life. It often takes many years for some people to realize this fact.
It won't matter if you don't get paid for pleasing someone else.
The dividend is in your heart the moment you render such a service.
It's a common expression that you can't please everybody, which is quite true. All the more reason why we should make the effort, happily, to please as many people as we can. An employee earns pleasure for himself, or herself, when performing to please the one paying him or her for his or her services. In the large sense, however, we should always work to please ourselves. Thereby we gain pride and self-respect.
I am sure that Sir Winston Churchill and President Eisenhower primarily want to please themselves. Their example, however, cannot help but suggest to others to take up this delightful hobby or occupation.
Marcus Aurelius wrote an inspiring little book that has blessed millions of people. I love to read his "reflections." Here is one:
"Nothing is more cheering than exemplifications of virtue in the characters of those about us, suggesting themselves as copiously as possible. We should keep them always ready at hand." Just to try and please people, what a useful and worthwhile occupation!
People who are kindly, tolerant, and always anxious to please others are people who are always welcome by us. They somehow blow out a lot of cloudy weather and tales of unhappiness.
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject, "Expect the Best."

IKE MAY TAKE GREATER PART IN GOP BATTLE
By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower may not be a Republican leader at a political strategy parley here Friday that he has decided to play a more active role in the GOP campaign for continued control of Congress.
Presidential aides at the Denver
White House said today the chief executive still had made no firm commitments, but they indicated he is showing increasing concern about reports from party leaders that Republican candidates face a hard fight in November election contests.
Eisenhower's decision whether to make more campaign addresses than he had planned may be made after he has had a chance to talk over the situation with Vice President Nixon.
Team Up Friday
Nixon is scheduled to arrive in Denver late tonight and he probably will report to Eisenhower tomorrow on GOP prospects. The vice president is on an extensive campaign tour of the country.
Eisenhower and Nixon will team up Friday evening in a nationwide television-radio address on behalf of GOP candidates for the Senate and House.
They will broadcast from the 6-000-seat Denver Municipal Auditorium at a big political rally. And

Talks Election Eve
Two hours before Eisenhower and Nixon go on the air they will meet here with Republican congressional leaders. The President called the conference yesterday for a general discussion of the political situation and a review of international problems.
At this time the President has only two more political speeches definitely scheduled during the campaign—the one on Friday night, the other Nov. 1, election eve.
Scheduled to arrive at the Denver White House tonight a few hours in advance of Nixon's Robert J. Cullen, the President's aide in charge of national security council affairs.
Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary, described Cullen's visit as "routine" to keep Eisenhower posted on security developments.

POLICE SCOUR WIDE AREA FOR SLAYER OF TWO
PALMERTON, Pa. (AP)—Police combed the Panther Valley area Tuesday searching for a man wanted for questioning in the slaying of a Palmerton couple as they entered a church to sing in the choir.
Investigators said 46-year-old Daniel Falcone was identified by witnesses as the man who shot to death Matthew M. Daneker, 38, and his wife, Mildred, 36. The couple was shot to death at point blank range as they entered Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church.
Daneker was choir master at the church and his wife was a member of the group. Like his father before him, Daneker was a justice of the peace.
Weapon Not Found
Carbon County Coroner William Weyhnmeyer said the couple had been shot with a .22 caliber gun.
The weapon has not been found.
However, a new gun case found in Falcone's car has been impounded, police said. The car was parked near the church.
Rev. Milton E. Deterline, church pastor, said the assailant fired at Mrs. Daneker while he was standing "within three feet" of his victim. She fell mortally wounded with a single bullet in her chest. Daneker grappled for the gun with the assailant and the gun went off again, killing the justice of the peace.
State police said no motive had been established for the killing, although Mrs. Daneker's mother—Mrs. Sidney French—said there had been a romance between Falcone, foreman in a shirt factory department, and her daughter. Mrs.
French said Mrs. Daneker had been trying to break up the friendship.
Monroe Will Tell
Of Benching Joe HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The world hears today from Marilyn Mon-roe's own luscious lips the reason why she benched Joe DiMaggio.
The movie box office queen, who sued the former baseball star yesterday for divorce, scheduled a press conference in their Beverly Hills home.
She'll tell all, promised lawyer
Jerry Giesler. That is, of course, if the right questions are asked.
In the past Marilyn's honest answers to direct questions have driven many a studio press agent to distraction.
It's doubtful if DiMaggio will be on hand to give his version of the breakup that caught Hollywood gossips with their columns down.
A reporter who knocked on the door late yesterday was told by a servant that Joe was not inside.
None of the small army of reporters and photographers camped outside had seen him leave but there is always the back door.

May Operate On Joined Twin Girls
CHICAGO (AP)—The head-jointed Andrews twins Tuesday were to be taken from the hospital to the Neuropsychiatric Institute where doctors will commence studies to determine the feasibility of a separation operation.
Born in St. Anne's Hospital Friday, the Siamese twin girls were seen by their mother, Mrs. Korene Andrews, 33, for the first time yesterday. The father, Andrew, 38, is a salesman.
The Neuropsychiatric Institute, an adjunct of the University of Illinois, is the hospital on Chicago's West Side where the Brodie twins, joined at the head, were separated in an historic operation in 1952.
Rodney Dee Brodie survived the surgery. His brother, Roger Lee, died soon after the operation.
Andrews said he and his wife are optimistic that doctors—with the advantage of their experience in the Brodie case—may be able to separate and save both of their babies.

FIRMS HELPING UNEMPLOYMENT GET TAX HELP
WASHINGTON (AP)—Mobilization officials said today the Administration's newest move to steer new defense industries into unemployment-stricken cities will not be permitted to obstruct the industrial dispersion program.
The Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) last week announced that special tax benefits will be extended to firms which build essential plants in any city having "substantial" unemployment — 6 per cent of more of its labor force unemployed. The benefits applied previously in "chronic" unemployment areas.
The new order made federal tax concessions available in a total of 145 cities, about twice as many as before. Detroit, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and some other possible targets for atomic and hydrogen bombs were among 72 cities and towns which became eligible as of last Friday.
That would mean locating the proposed plant either in a smaller community or—in a major metropolitan area—far enough from the industrial center to afford relative security from a bombing attack.
The ODM spokesman pointed out that, since the industrial expansion program is in the tapering-off stage, most of the future defense plant expansion will consist of small units employing relatively few workers.
Since 1951, the spokesman noted, about 80 per cent of all new industrial plants have been located on dispersed sites.
Economic and social trends have pushed in that direction. The search for cheaper land, lower taxes, and adequate power and water supplies have sent many expanding companies from the cities to the hinterland.

nual banquet at the Blue Parrot tea room, Friday evening. Approximately 100 persons attended, including stockholders, employees of the bank and guests.
Farm Agent Appointed for Adams:
M. T. Hartman, who came to Gettysburg in August, on Tuesday was formally commissioned as farm agent for Adams county by Dr.
Raiph D. Heitzel, president of State College.
Mr. Hartman, or "Dutch" as he prefers to be known, came to Adams county from Cameron county where he was farm agent for two years, being stationed at Emporium.

Sixty Firemen Attend Pittsburgh: Confab: Sixty members of the Gettysburg fire company have gone to Pittsburgh to attend the annual convention of the state firemen's association in session this week.
A feature of the annual gathering was the parade on Thursday. The Gettysburg delegation secured the services of the famous ROKA band of Pittsburgh to furnish music for it in the parade.

Just Folks
WONDERLAND
He was just a little fellow with the star-glow in his eyes.
His world was all a playground, filled with wonder and surprise.
There was kindness all about him.
He was very sure of that,
For even passing strangers stopped to give him a pat.
He didn't have a rival, and he didn't have a care.
He knew but smiling people, for he met them everywhere.
He hadn't heard of failure or sorrow's ache and pain,
And life had yet to teach of such things as loss and gain.
He gave his heart to people, were they yellow, black or white.
He was just a little fellow, scarcely knowing wrong from right.
So I patted him when passing, and I wished that I could be as merry and light-hearted and unprejudiced as he.

"GERMAN ARMS HELPFUL," DUFF
PARIS (AP)—Sen. James H. Duff (R-Pa.) said Tuesday that ratification of the London accords on German rearmament will put the Western Allies in a "magnificent position of strength."
The senator, a member of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, is sailing tomorrow from Le Havre, across the lower United States after a month's inspection of American war bases in Britain, France, West Germany and Spain.
Duff told a news conference the London conference had greatly encouraged advocates of Western cooperation and had changed the atmosphere of conflict, which followed the collapse of the European Army plan.
Duff said the London agreements will meet with great approval in the United States and in Congress. I do not know of anything which would make such a favorable impression in the United States as this agreement if it is ratified.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission has suspended for an additional three months to Jan. 12 an estimated $1,175,000 a year rate increase proposed by the Scranton Electric Co.
The commission said it needed the additional time to complete an investigation of the increase originally filed to be effective last April 12. An initial six month suspension of the post, ends Tuesday but the PUC said it cannot complete its inquiry and issue an order by that time.
The utility serves 88,200 consumers in Lackawanna, Luzerne, Susquehanna and Wayne counties.

MAN REMOVED FROM STEEPLE, 156 FEET HIGH
BOSTON (AP)—While a crowd estimated at 5,000 persons looked on from below, police climbed the scaffolding around the steeple of the Park Street Church Monday night and brought down a man from a perch 156 feet up.
Police had been summoned by persons who spotted the man on the steeple.
"A man is going to jump from the steeple," police said they were told. The same phrase passed from the lips of one person to another as they gazed upward toward the man, who didn't seem to notice the crowd below.
"Measuring Steeple"
When police finally reached him,
he identified himself as Russell Oatman, 27, of Marblehead, and said he was an architect engaged in taking measurements of the steeple.
Police, who openly expressed skepticism, took him to the police station while Oatman protested: "I have no intention of jumping. I have work to do at the steeple."
From the station, police called an official of Oatman's employer, Kilham Hopkins Greenley & Brodie
Co.
Sure enough, Oatman had official business on the steeple. What's more he'd been up there several times the past few weeks making sketches from which a master remodeling plan will be drawn.

SUGGESTS TOLL ROAD FOR MD.
BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Roads Commission Tuesday recommended Maryland get into the toll highway business.
It suggested as a starter a new 48-mile super-highway from Baltimore to the Pennsylvania line in the northeast corner of the state near Elkton.
The recommendation was made to the legislative council, a panel of legislators which sits proposed laws between sessions of the General Assembly.
It would go before the Legislature in January.
Maryland already has plans to build a new super-highway between Baltimore and the northeast corner of the state, roughly parallel to the present U. S. 40.
Under the state's long-range highway program, it would not be completed until at least 1955 or 1956. If built as a toll highway, the Commission suggested, it could be finished within three or four years.
The proposed "Northeast Expressway" would come within 35 miles of a connection with the Pennsylvania Turnpike west of Philadelphia.
By branching off the new road just west of Elkton, motorists also would be within about 25 miles of the Delaware River Bridge and the New Jersey Turnpike via U. S.
40.
The toll would be $1.00 per car per day, or $2.00 for trucks and buses.

WANTS U.S. TO GET REAL TOUGH
MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Sen.
Bridges (R-NH) has called for a return to the days of the rattlesnake flag so the Communists will be "forced to take any action which may possibly call for strong measures on our part."
The president pro tempore of the Senate told a civil defense session at St. Anselm College last night he is "tired of being afraid of the Russians" and "it is about time the Russians started to be afraid of us."
"I truly believe that the only hope of peace is for us to return to the principles which made this nation great, to cease appeasement, to cease compromise on fundamental principles," he said.
Bridges noted that the first flag of the republic was a coiled rattlesnake with a motto "Don't Tread on Me" and said that "in my opinion, that is the attitude we better adopt in the world today."

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—National-

Islands, off the coast of Red China, opened fire yesterday on three Communist planes but scored no hits, the Defense Ministry said today.
The planes were sighted a few hours after radar screens here picked up an unidentified plane flying toward Formosa from China. This island was blacked out for 55 minutes.
Published reports said one of the three planes sighted over the Tachens was a MIG15 jet, but Lt.
Gen. Chang Yi-tung, army spokesman, said he had no such detailed identification.
At Umeyo, 350 miles south of the Tachens, Nationalist artillery traded more shells with Communist batteries on the mainland seven miles away.

Today's Talk

JUST TO PLEASE
It should thrill and give spiritual comfort to each one of us when we are given the opportunity, or when we create the opportunity, whereby we please and give joy to someone else. We even should delight in pleasing ourselves, for then we could not help but pass the surplus around!

It is impossible to please someone else without enriching one's own life. It often takes many years for some people to realize this fact. It won't matter if you don't get paid for pleasing someone else. The dividend is in your heart the moment you render such a service. It's a common expression that you can't please everybody, which is quite true. All the more reason why we should make the effort, happily, to please as many people as we can. An employee earns pleasure for himself, or herself, when performing to please the one paying him or her for his or her services. In the large sense, however, we should always work to please ourselves. Thereby we gain pride and self-respect.

I am sure that Sir Winston Churchill and President Eisenhower primarily paint to please themselves. Their example, however, cannot help but suggest to others to take up this delightful hobby or occupation. Marcus Aurelius wrote an inspiring little book that has blessed millions of people. I love to read his "reflections." Here is one: "Nothing is more cheering than exemplifications of virtue in the characters of those about us, suggesting themselves as copiously as possible. We should keep them always ready at hand." Just to try and please people, what a useful and worthwhile occupation!

People who are kindly, tolerant, and always anxious to please others are people who are always welcome by us. They somehow blot out a lot of cloudy weather and tales of unhappiness.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Expect the Best!" Protected, 1954, George Matthew Adams Service

Just Folks

WONDERLAND
He was just a little fellow with the star-glow in his eyes. His world was all a playground, filled with wonder and surprise.

There was kindness all about him. He was very sure of that. For even passing strangers stopped to give him a pat.

He didn't have a rival, and he didn't have a care. He knew but smiling people, for he met them everywhere. He hadn't heard of failure or of sorrow's ache and pain. And life had yet to teach of such things as loss and gain.

He gave his heart to people, were they yellow, black or white. He was just a little fellow, scarcely knowing wrong from right. So I patted him when passing, and I wished that I could be as merry and light-hearted and unprejudiced as he.

"GERMAN ARMS HELPFUL," DUFF

PARIS (AP)—Sen. James H. Duff, (R-Pa.) said Tuesday that ratification of the London accords on German rearmament will put the Western Allies in a "magnificent position of strength."
The senator, a member of the Senate Armed Forces Committee, is sailing tomorrow from Le Havre aboard the liner United States after a month's inspection of American military bases in Britain, France, West Germany and Spain.
Duff told a news conference the London nine-power conference had greatly encouraged advocates of Western cooperation and had "changed the atmosphere of confusion" which followed the collapse of the European Army plan.
Duff said the London agreements if ratified, "will meet with great approval in the United States and in the Congress. I do not know of anything which would make such a favorable impression in the United States as this agreement if it is ratified."

IKE MAY TAKE GREATER PART IN GOP BATTLE

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower may notify Republican leaders at a political strategy parley here Friday that he has decided to play a more active role in the GOP campaign for continued control of Congress.

Presidential aides at the Denver White House said today the chief executive still had made no firm commitments, but they indicated he is showing increasing concern about reports from party leaders that Republican candidates face a hard fight in November election contests.

Eisenhower's decision whether to make more campaign addresses than he had planned may be made after he has had a chance to talk over the situation with Vice President Nixon.

Team Up Friday

Nixon is scheduled to arrive in Denver late tonight and he probably will report to Eisenhower tomorrow on GOP prospects. The vice president is on an extensive campaign tour of the country.

Eisenhower and Nixon will team up Friday evening in a nationwide television-radio address on behalf of GOP candidates for the Senate and House.

They will broadcast from the 6,000-seat Denver Municipal Auditorium at a big political rally. Aides have said it will be the President's hardest hitting speech of the campaign.

Talks Election Eve

Two hours before Eisenhower and Nixon go on the air they will meet here with Republican congressional leaders. The President called the conference yesterday for a general discussion of the political situation and a review of international problems.

At this time the President has only two more political speeches definitely scheduled during the campaign—the one on Friday night, the other Nov. 1, election eve.

Scheduled to arrive at the Denver White House tonight a few hours in advance of Nixon is Robert J. Cutler, the President's aide in charge of national security council affairs.

Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary, described Cutler's visit as "routine" to keep Eisenhower posted on security developments.

SUGGESTS TOLL ROAD FOR MD.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Roads Commission Tuesday recommended Maryland get into the toll highway business.

It suggested as a starter a new 48-mile super-highway from Baltimore to the Pennsylvania line in the northeast corner of the state near Elkton.

The recommendation was made to the legislative council, a panel of legislators which sifts proposed laws between sessions of the General Assembly.

It would go before the Legislature in January. Maryland already has plans to build a new super-highway between Baltimore and the northeast corner of the state, roughly parallel to the present U. S. 40.

Under the state's long-range highway program, it would not be completed until at least 1965 or 1966. If built as a toll highway, the Commission suggested, it could be finished within three or four years.

The proposed "Northeast Expressway" would come within 35 miles of a connection with the Pennsylvania Turnpike west of Philadelphia.

By branching off the new road just west of Elkton, motorists also would be within about 25 miles of the Delaware River Bridge and the New Jersey Turnpike via U. S. 40.

DELAY RATE INCREASE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission has suspended for an additional three months to Jan. 12 an estimated $1,173,000 a year rate increase proposed by the Scranton Electric Co.

The commission said it needed the additional time to complete an investigation of the increase originally filed to be effective last April 12. An initial six month suspension of the boost ends Tuesday but the PUC said it cannot complete its inquiry and issue an order by that time.

The utility serves 88,200 consumers in Lackawanna, Luzerne, Susquehanna and Wayne counties.

MAN REMOVED FROM STEEPLE, 156 FEET HIGH

BOSTON (AP)—While a crowd estimated at 5,000 persons looked on from below, police climbed the scaffolding around the steeple of the Park Street Church Monday night and brought down a man from a perch 156 feet up.

Police had been summoned by persons who spotted the man on the steeple.

"A man is going to jump from the steeple," police said they were told. The same phrase passed from the lips of one person to another as they gazed upward toward the man, who didn't seem to notice the crowd below.

"Measuring Steeple"
When police finally reached him, he identified himself as Russell Oatman, 27, of Marblehead, and said he is an architect engaged in taking measurements of the steeple.

Police, who openly expressed skepticism, took him to the police station while Oatman protested: "I have no intention of jumping. I have work to do at the steeple."

From the station, police called an official of Oatman's employer, Kilham, Hopkins, Greenley & Brodie Co.

Sure enough, Oatman had official business on the steeple. What's more he'd been up there several times the past few weeks making sketches from which a master remodeling plan will be drawn.

WANTS U.S. TO GET REAL TOUGH

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Sen. Bridges (R-NH) has called for a return to the days of the rattlesnake flag so the Communist will be "afraid to take any action which may possibly call for strong measures on our part."

The president pro tempore of the Senate told a civil defense session at St. Anselm College last night he is "tired of being afraid of the Russians" and "it is about time the Russians started to be afraid of us."

"I truly believe that the only hope of peace is for us to return to the principles which made this nation great; to cease appeasement; to cease compromise on fundamental principles," he said.

Bridges noted that the first flag of the republic was a coiled rattlesnake with a motto "Don't tread on Me" and said that "in my opinion, that is the attitude we better adopt in the world today."

POLICE SCOUR WIDE AREA FOR SLAYER OF TWO

PALMERTON, Pa. (AP)—Police combed the Panther Valley area Tuesday searching for a man wanted for questioning in the slaying of a Palmerton couple as they entered a church to sing in the choir.

Investigators said 48-year-old Daniel Falcone was identified by witnesses as the man who shot to death Matthew M. Daneker, 38, and his wife, Mildred, 36. The couple was shot to death at point blank range as they entered Trinity Evangelical Congregational Church.

Daneker was choir master at the church and his wife was a member of the group. Like his father before him, Daneker was a justice of the peace.

Weapon Not Found

Carbon County Coroner William Weyhenmeyer said the couple had been shot with a .22 caliber gun. The weapon has not been found. However, a new gun case found in Falcone's car has been impounded, police said. The car was parked near the church.

Rev. Milton E. Dettlerline, church pastor, said the assailant fired at Mrs. Daneker while he was standing "within three feet" of his victim. She fell mortally wounded with a single bullet in her chest. Daneker grappled for the gun with the assailant and the gun went off again, killing the justice of the peace.

State police said no motive had been established for the killing, although Mrs. Daneker's mother—Mrs. Sidney French—said there had been a romance between Falcone, foreman in a shirt factory department, and her daughter, Mrs. French said Mrs. Daneker had been trying to break up the friendship.

Monroe Will Tell Of Benching Joe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The world hears today from Marilyn Monroe's own luscious lips the reason why she benched Joe DiMaggio.

The movie box office queen, who sued the former baseball star yesterday for divorce, scheduled a press conference in their Beverly Hills home.

She'll tell all, promised lawyer Jerry Giesler. That is, of course, if the right questions are asked. In the past Marilyn's honest answers to direct questions have driven many a studio press agent to distraction.

It's doubtful if DiMaggio will be on hand to give his version of the breakup that caught Hollywood gossips with their columns down.

A reporter who knocked on the door late yesterday was told by a servant that Joe was not inside. None of the small army of reporters and photographers camped outside had seen him leave but there is always the back door.

WILL DRAFT 23,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army has issued a draft call for 23,000 men in December, the same number announced in each of the previous five months.

Ten new call brings to 1,835,430 the total number drafted or earmarked for induction since Selective Service was resumed in September, 1950.

Draft calls held at the 23,000 level from July, 1953, through January, 1954. For five months ending last June, the monthly quotas dropped to 18,000, but rose again in July to the current level.

May Operate On Joined Twin Girls

CHICAGO (AP)—The head-joined Andrews twins Tuesday were to be taken from the hospital to the Neuropsychiatric Institute where doctors will commence studies to determine the feasibility of a separation operation.

Born in St. Anne's Hospital Friday, the Siamese twin girls were seen by their mother, Mrs. Norene Andrews, 33, for the first time yesterday. The father, Andrew, 38, is a salesman.

The Neuropsychiatric Institute, an adjunct of the University of Illinois, is the hospital on Chicago's West Side where the Brodie twins, joined at the head, were separated in an historic operation in 1952. Rodney Dee Brodie survived the surgery. His brother, Roger Lee, died soon after the operation.

Andrews said he and his wife are optimistic that doctors—with the advantage of their experience in the Brodie case—may be able to separate and save both of their babies.

WOMAN JURIST TO FIX DATE OF MACING TRIAL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Judge Anne X. Alpern will decide whether the trial of four top Republican state officials—indicted on macing charges—will be held before or after the Nov. 2 election.

Atty. Charles J. Margiotti, representing the four, wants an immediate trial. Allegheny County Dist. Atty. James F. Malone says his office can't prepare its cases against the four before November at the earliest.

Judge Alpern Monday told the opposing lawyers to dig into their lawbooks for precedents to back up their arguments. Then she'll decide when the trials will be held.

Margiotti, a former state attorney general, said his clients are under a cloud of suspicion and are entitled to a public and speedy trial.

15 Were Indicted

The four are accused of conspiring to force state employees to chip in one per cent of their annual wages to a GOP campaign fund. Such a practice is known as macing.

The four are among 15 persons indicted on macing charges last week. They are Artemas C. Leslie, state insurance commissioner and a member of Gov. John S. Fine's cabinet; Fred P. Hare Jr., the governor's administrative assistant; Fred Campbell, a state insurance investigator, and George A. Nally, controller for the State Department of Revenue.

Malone heads an anti-Fine Republican faction in Allegheny County, while Leslie is head of the for-Fine forces. The investigation began last May. A special grand jury at that time recommended the indictments returned by the regular grand jury last week.

FIRMS HELPING UNEMPLOYMENT GET TAX HELP

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mobilization officials said today the Administration's newest move to steer new defense industries into unemployment-stricken cities will not be permitted to obstruct the industrial dispersion program.

The Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) last week announced that special tax benefits will be extended to firms which build essential plants in any city having "substantial" unemployment—6 per cent or more of its labor force unemployed. The benefits applied previously in "chronic" unemployment areas.

The new order made federal tax concessions available in a total of 145 cities, about twice as many as before. Detroit, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and some other possible targets for atomic and hydrogen bombs were among 72 cities and towns which became eligible as of last Friday.

That would mean locating the proposed plant either in a smaller community or—if in a major metropolitan area—far enough from the industrial center to afford relative security from a bombing attack.

The ODM spokesman pointed out that, since the industrial expansion program is in the tapering-off stage, most of the future defense plant expansion will consist of small units employing relatively few workers.

Since 1951, the spokesman noted, about 80 per cent of all new industrial plants have been located on dispersed sites.

Economic and social trends have pushed in that direction. The search for cheaper land, lower taxes, and adequate power and water supplies have sent many expanding companies from the cities to the hinterland.

Communist Wants His Citizenship

PITTSBURGH (AP)—U. S. District Court studied today a petition by Steve Nelson, former chairman of the Western Pennsylvania Communist Party, to dismiss government proceedings to revoke his citizenship.

The government says Nelson concealed his membership in the party when he filed his naturalization papers. Nelson's attorney, Hymen Schlesinger, told the Federal Court it has no jurisdiction to take away citizenship.

Nelson was convicted of conspiring to advocate the violent overthrow of the government. He is free on bond pending an appeal.

Leo, Born To Be Manager, Did Marvelous Job In Series; May Have More Enemies Than Friends

By JOE REICHLER
NEW YORK (AP)—If ever a man was made for a job, it was Leo Durocher. He was born to be a manager.

He schemes, he plots, he fights, he argues, he drives, he gets the maximum out of his men, he plays hunches, he takes chances, he confounds and confuses the opposition, and, he wins ball games that the experts claim he has no right to win.

He has numerous friends but is a doubtful if they outnumber his enemies. His friends swear by him, his enemies swear at him. He is loved by some and hated by others. But practically all are unanimous—his backers and critics alike—that Durocher is one of the greatest managers who ever was heaved out of a game by an umpire.

Brilliant Strategy

If any proof of his managerial ability was needed, Leo provided it in the recent World Series, much to the chagrin of the American League Champion Cleveland Indians.

Durocher's strategy and tactics were so obviously brilliant that Al Lopez, his rival manager, was prompted to remark to reporters after the Giants had whopped his team in four straight: "They outplayed us all the way. But they also were helped by Durocher, who did a fine job of managing."

Rarely has one manager paid such a tribute to another. Durocher did a marvelous job of managing the Giants, not only in the World Series but during the regular season.

Fictional At Times

There was one stretch in mid-season when their heroes bordered on the fictional.

They turned games that appeared irretrievably lost into victories with elan and dash, winning rallies.

That was when every pinch hitter Durocher called on delivered, and every pitcher he summoned from the bullpen stopped a rally. Leo could make no mistakes.

RUMOR INDIAN SALE PENDING

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Cleveland industrialist has been helping at a deal pending for the sale of the Cleveland Indians, but the baseball club management declares that no bona fide offer has been made.

Joseph E. Cole, president of the National Key Co., and a minor stockholder in the Indians, said yesterday he heads a "fine, well-thought-out group of men" seeking to buy the Tribe, and he added, "I only hope the premature publicity will not kill things."

The club's president, Myron H. Wilson, issued a statement which he said came "as a result of the various rumors" about the proposals is dead.

"At no time have we ever attempted to secure any offers for the sale of the ball club. Furthermore, we have never received a bona fide offer. At the present time our only interest is centered in improving the Indians for 1965."

Cole's syndicate, it is believed, is prepared to pay more than $3,000,000 or greater than $1,000,000 a share of stock. About two years ago, Ellis Ryan sold out to the present Indians owners for $500 a share.

MOUNT BOOTERS FACE FROSTBURG THIS SATURDAY

Coach Jim McKeon and his Mount St. Mary's College booters start their first full season of intercollegiate competition on Saturday against Ken Babcock's Frostburg State Teachers eleven at Frostburg. Although McKeon has had a turnout of approximately 35 candidates, he faces a rough task in getting his squad ready since most of the Mountaineers are learning the game from ground up, the large majority of them having had no experience of any sort.

Best prospects among the newcomers are Hans Klein, a German exchange student playing at center forward. Klein figures to be the key to the Mountaineers' scoring together with Baden and Schoray. Starting goalie is Art Cecil, a sophomore who saw little action last year behind Frank Norato. Cecil has quick moves and is a good booter. If he comes along fast, McKeon feels the Blue and White could be tough.

Other Starters

John Loftus, another sophomore from last year's reserves, has shown much improvement and has won a starting berth at left fullback; Junior Ron Cahill, the most improved booter on the squad, will start at center half; Jim Beattie at left half; and either Terry Ruxford, Jim Coen, or Jim Moroney at right fullback. Brian Fleming has the other starting berth at inside right.

Most promising of the reserves are sophomore Jack White, a fullback; Bill Sheridan, also a fullback; and Al Klug at halfback. Six freshmen are also making a fight for jobs: Joe Kernan, Sterling Wise, Fred Wynn, George Yeabower, Dick Toomy, and John Bailey. Bailey ought to see a lot of action at both goal and fullback, and Keenan, Wynn and Wise are also learning quick enough to warrant a great deal of use.

While McKeon is hopeful of improving last year's record which saw the Mountaineers win only over Georgetown while losing to Catholic U., Towson, Baltimore, and Frostburg, he's looking ahead also to the years ahead. Their current squad is loaded with freshmen and sophomores who are learning their jobs, and losses by graduation should be relatively light. The new Mountaineer mentor would like better size and more speed, but he's completely sold on the hustle and eagerness to learn that the green Mountaineers have displayed this far.

"We're not going to set the league afire," he says, "but we shouldn't be pushovers. If some of the other clubs start looking past us to the next strong opponent, we could cause some embarrassment."

SEEK SUSPECT IN DUAL MURDER FIGHT TONIGHT FOR TITLE SHOT

PAIRMERTON, Pa. (AP)—State police continued an intensive search of sparsely settled wooded and mountainous areas on either side of Pa. Route 102 today for 48-year-old Daniel Falcone, wanted for questioning in the Sunday slaying of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Daneker. Justice of the peace and his wife, Mildred, were shot to death at point-blank range outside their church in full view of a score of parishioners including their only son, Richard, 16.

Several witnesses have stated Falcone was the assailant. No charges have been placed against the man and the police have announced no official motive for the shooting. His car was found near the church. He was a resident of nearby Bangor.

Mrs. Daneker's mother, Mrs. Sidney French, said the dead woman had been trying for some time without success to end a romantic friendship her daughter had with Falcone. He was a foreman at a shirt factory where she was employed.

BIG TEN ON TV OFFERS RICE VS. WISCONSIN

By JOE MOOSHILL

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten's kick for regional television appears out of bounds these days. Three conference teams have already appeared on the national screen with a fourth and possibly the best coming up.

Two weeks ago TV fans saw Iowa whip Michigan State. Last week Stanford humbled Illinois and on Saturday's menu is the Wisconsin-Rice encounter.

Ameche vs. Moegle

Wisconsin's Alan (The Horse) Ameche vs. fabulous Dicky Moegle of Rice.

Moegle is the same youngster whose runs so infuriated Alabama in the Cotton Bowl last January that a 12th man got off the bench to tackle the Owl speedster when he was clear and away on a 55-yard touchdown jaunt.

Moegle hasn't let up since. Against Rice victims Florida and Cornell this year, he has averaged 13.7 yards in 16 carries. The first four times he got his hands on the ball against Cornell, he swept for touchdowns runs of 16, 40, 10 and 78 yards.

Wisconsin's answer, of course, is Ameche. But that's not all. Badger quarterbacks Jim Miller and Jim Maluska are passing at a 7.60 clip this season.

Open Huge Area For Hunting Season

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Forests and Waters Department said it will open 38,015 acres of non-recreational portions of nine state parks for the 1964 hunting season.

In making the announcement yesterday, Samuel S. Lewis, department secretary, noted this is an increase of 8,892 acres above last year's total.

The opening of the Big Pocono Park in Monroe County will account for about 1,000 acres.

Lewis said hunting areas also have been increased in Hickory Run Park, Carbon County; Cook Forest, Clarion County; and Racoon Creek Park, Berks County.

BUBBLERS HOST TO JR. HIGH 11

Gettysburg Junior High School's football squad makes its first appearance of foreign soil Thursday afternoon when it clashes with Boiling Springs on the Bubblers' ground. The kickoff will be at 3:30 o'clock.

Last week the locals bowed to the Delone Freshmen here 20-6 in opening their season which makes them doubly anxious for victory at Boiling Springs.

Coach Ned Brownley is expected to start the same lineup that opened last week. It will be: Ends, Frank Dearing and Richard Cook; tackles, Elmer Thomas and Don Kimple; guards, Roy Goldsmith and Don Crane; center, Bob Staley; backs, Earl Lattie, George Mitchell, Ken Keefe and Rex Baitley.

George Forney, athletic director, has announced the game here with Hershey Junior High next week has been moved up to Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was previously scheduled for Thursday evening.

Dual Race Program At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa., Oct. 6—Over 200 competitors will see action during a dual program of jalopy stock car and motorcycle racing in over 200 laps listed for Sunday afternoon when Roy Richwine presents the first twin card of its type ever staged on the Williams Grove Speedway.

Both types of racing will offer fans a complete program, adding up to 16 events in all.

The two-wheelers will compete on a nine-event card under sanction of the American Motorcycle Association, consisting of two six-lap qualifying races in expert, amateur and novice classes, with two 10-lap finals for the amateurs and novices and a 10-lap feature for the experts, adding up to a total of 90 laps for the handiecar derbyists.

Following the bike races, the jalopy drivers will take over on the oval for a seven-event program made up of four 10-lap qualifying races, two 10-lap consolation events and coming to a climax with a 25-lap feature race starting 44 cars for a total of 85 laps.

Delone Faces Strong Foe At McSherrystown Thursday

GHS-WAYNESBORO IN 27TH MEETING

When the Gettysburg and Waynesboro High School football teams lock horns here Friday evening at 8 o'clock it will mark the 27th meeting in a series begun in 1921.

The Warriors hold the edge with 14 wins against 10 losses and a pair of ties. Last year Gettysburg triumphed 12-6.

Results of games played, with the Gettysburg score first, are as follows: 1921, 6-20; 1922, 32-0; 1923, 26-0; 1929, 12-0; 1930, 6-2; 1931, 13-6; 1932, 13-0; 1935, 6-19; 1936, 19-25; 1937, 0-40; 1938, 6-19; 1939, 6-26; 1940, 0-44; 1941, 20-3; 1942, 26-14; 1943, 6-38; 1944, 12-0; 1945, 0-27; 1946, 6-18; 1947, 7-0; 1948, 7-7; 1949, 13-13; 1950, 26-2; 1951, 27-0; 1952, 40-13; 1953, 12-6.

Waynesboro and Gettysburg rate on an even basis for Friday's game. The Franklin Countians have a 1-2 record while Gettysburg has a 1-3 mark.

Delone won his first victory in when they edged Lancaster Catholic 7 to 6. In previous starts, the Squares lost a 27-8 decision to Hanover High, the close loss to Gettysburg, and a 20-0 close loss to Scotland, 25-7. Bonell, feels, however, that the Scotland game was his team's best effort to date.

"It was just a few breaks that beat us," he said. "They never put together two first downs in a row from scrimmage."

Bonelli feels that lack of effective blocking has been the team's weak spot so far, and he has been drilling them all week on that. "Poor open field tackling also hurt us against Scotland," he said.

Team Improves

Bonelli is encouraged by the constant improvement of the team in general and three of his younger players in particular, sophomore end Joe Post, junior guard Charley Gutz, and Paul Staub, a 180-lb. sophomore tackle. Post is expected to start at right end Thursday night in place of Jude Smith, the only injured member of the team. Smith has seen no action since he hurt his knee in the Gettysburg game, but he expects to return to the lineup next week.

Bonelli said that Carroll Funk will probably be his starting quarterback for the rest of the season, although Dan Greenback had held that spot until the Lancaster Catholic game. "We always felt that Funk had more ability," he said, "He only needed the experience."

Delone's probable starting lineup will be: center, Rodney Bunney; guards, Bob McMaster and Mark Yingling; tackles, Claude Zepp and Tom Smith; ends, Post and Burrell Bevenour; quarterback, Funk; halfbacks, Don McKendrick and Ralph Hardman; and fullbacks, team captain Buddy Redding.

Terror Fallback Lost For Season

A severe blow was dealt the Western Maryland College football team last Saturday when Warren McFarigue, 179-pound fullback, suffered a fractured leg as the Terrors bowed 24-0 to Penn Military College. McFarigue, who was completing his last year of eligibility after two years in the armed forces, will be lost for the remainder of the season. Western Maryland is a future opponent of the Gettysburg College Bullets, being scheduled to play here November 13.

The United States uses about 60 million pounds of tea a year.

BIG TEN ON TV OFFERS RICE VS. WISCONSIN

By JOE MOOSHL

CHICAGO (AP)—The Big Ten's kick for regional television appears out of bounds these days. Three conference teams have already appeared on the national screen with a fourth and possibly the best coming up.

Two weeks ago TV fans saw Iowa whip Michigan State. Last week Stanford humbled Illinois and on Saturday's menu is the Wisconsin-Rice encounter.

Ameche Vs. Moegle

Wisconsin's Alan (The Horse) Ameche vs. fabulous Dicky Moegle of Rice.

Moegle is the same youngster whose runs so infuriated Alabama in the Cotton Bowl last January that a 12th man got off the bench to tackle the Owl speedster when he was clear and away on a 99-yard touchdown jaunt.

Moegle hasn't let up since. Against Rice victims Florida and Cornell this year, he has averaged 13.7 yards in 16 carries. The first four times he got his hands on the ball against Cornell, he swept for touchdown runs of 18, 40, 10 and 78 yards.

Wisconsin's answer, of course, is Ameche. But that's not all. Badger quarterbacks Jim Miller and Jim Haluska are passing at a .760 clip this season.

Open Huge Area For Hunting Season

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Forests and Waters Department said it will open 38,015 acres of non-recreational portions of nine state parks for the 1954 hunting season.

In making the announcement yesterday, Samuel S. Lewis, department secretary, noted this is an increase of 8,892 acres above last year's total.

The opening of the Big Pocono Park in Monroe County will account for about 1,000 acres.

Lewis said hunting areas also have been increased in Hickory Run Park, Carbon County, Cook Forest, Clarion County, and Raccoon Creek Park, Beaver County.

BUBBLERS HOST TO JR. HIGH 11

Gettysburg Junior High School's football squad makes its first invasion of foreign soil Thursday afternoon when it clashes with Bolling Springs on the Bubblers' gridiron. The kickoff will be at 3:30 o'clock.

Last week the locals bowed to the Delone Freshmen here 20-6 in opening their season which makes them doubly anxious for victory at Bolling Springs.

Coach Ned Brownley is expected to start the same lineup that opened last week. It will be: Ends, Frank Dearing and Richard Cook; tackles, Elmer Thomas and Don Kimpke; guards, Roy Colsmith and Don Crane; center, Bob Staley; backs, Earl Little, George Mitchell, Ken Keeler and Rex Baltzley.

George Forney, athletic director, has announced the game here with Hershey Junior High next week has been moved up to Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was previously scheduled for Thursday evening.

Dual Race Program

At Williams Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE, Pa., Oct. 6—Over 200 competitors will see action during a dual program of jalopy stock car and motorcycle racing in over 200 laps listed for Sunday afternoon when Roy Richwine presents the first twin card of its type ever staged on the Williams Grove Speedway.

Both types of racing will offer fans a complete program, adding up to 16 events in all.

The two-wheelers will compete on a nine-event card under sanction of the American Motorcycle Association, consisting of two six-lap qualifying races in expert, amateur and novice classes, with two 10-lap finals for the amateurs and novices and a 10-lap feature for the experts, adding up to a total of 90 laps for the handlebar derbyists.

Following the bike races, the jalopy drivers will take over on the oval for a seven-event program made up of four 10-lap qualifying races, two 10-lap consolation events and coming to a climax with a 25-lap feature race starting 44 cars for a total of 85 laps.

GHS-WAYNESBORO IN 27TH MEETING

When the Gettysburg and Waynesboro High School football teams lock horns here Friday evening at 8 o'clock it will mark the 27th meeting in a series begun in 1921.

The Warriors hold the edge with 14 wins against 10 losses and a pair of ties. Last year Gettysburg triumphed 12-6.

Results of games played, as follows: 1921, 6-20; 1922, 32-0; 1923, 26-0; 1929, 18-0; 1930, 6-2; 1931, 13-6; 1932, 13-0; 1935, 6-19; 1936, 19-25; 1937, 0-40; 1938, 6-19; 1939, 6-26; 1940, 0-44; 1941, 20-3; 1942, 26-14; 1943, 6-38; 1944, 12-0; 1945, 0-27; 1946, 6-18; 1947, 7-0; 1948, 7-7; 1949, 13-13; 1950, 26-2; 1951, 27-0; 1952, 40-13; 1953, 12-6.

Waynesboro and Gettysburg rate on an even basis for Friday's game. The Franklin Countians have a 1-2 record while Gettysburg has a 1-3 mark.

CANNERS OPEN LAUREL LEAGUE SATURDAY NIGHT

Biglerville High's footballers lost their first two games, but Coach Bill Coradetti feels that when they open their Laurel League Conference season Saturday night against West York, they should "hold their own."

"We're in our own class now," says Coradetti. "West York won't be as tough as Camp Hill and Bolling Springs were, and this should be a pretty even game. Our boys have shown plenty of weaknesses, but they're beginning to come along."

One of the main trouble spots, Coradetti points out, has been weak blocking. "We can't open up the holes for the backs to run through," he said.

Four Players Injured

Four of the Cannners suffered injuries against Bolling Springs and are doubtful starters. Center Bob Fetter has a back injury, and Clair Fetter cracked a bone in his finger, and Wallace Rice will start as quarterback. Reserve back Jim Constable injured an ankle, and his status is in doubt.

Halfback Ronald Koontz, one of the Cannners' mainstays, injured his knee against Bolling Springs, but will probably be able to play against West York. If he can't, sophomore Ken Jaltzley, just promoted from the jayvees, may get the nod. "I'd don't know how I overlooked Baltzley earlier," says Coradetti. "He showed some fine running in the jayvee game."

The probable starting lineup against the Bulldogs is: Ends, Don Himes and Ed McGaughlin; tackles, Bill Sheaffer and Ken Pitzer; guards, Bill Birgen-smith and Ralph Mentzer; center, Clark; backs, Rice, Koontz, May and Bryant Roe.

OHLER AND WOOD

Gene Bonelli has come almost halfway through his first season as head football at Delone High with one win and three losses, and he will meet a most formidable foe when his team plays host to Westminster High Thursday evening at 8 o'clock on the McSherrystown field.

Herb Ruby's Westminster Owls are a big, tough defensive team. While their 2-and-2 record is not too impressive, no team has yet scored more than two touchdowns against them. The Owls defeated Gettysburg 19-14 earlier in the season, and the following week, Gettysburg turned around and beat Delone, 13-7.

Beat Lancaster 7-6

Delone won its first victory in when they edged Lancaster Catholic 7 to 6. In previous starts, the Squires lost a 27-18 decision to Hanover High, the close loss to Gettysburg, and a not-so-close loss to Scotland, 25-7. Bonelli feels, however, that the Scotland game was his team's best effort to date.

"It was just a few breaks that beat us," he said. "They never put together two first downs in a row from scrimmage."

Bonelli feels that lack of effective blocking has been the team's weak spot so far, and he has been drilling them all week on that. "Poor open field tackling also hurt us against Scotland," he said.

Team Improves

Bonelli is encouraged by the constant improvement of the team in general and three of his younger players in particular, sophomore end Joe Poist, junior guard Charley Giff, and Phil Staub, a 180-lb. sophomore tackle. Poist is expected to start at right end Thursday night in place of Jude Smith, the only injured member of the team.

Smith has seen no action since he hurt his knee in the Gettysburg game, but he expects to return to the lineup next week.

Bonelli said that Carroll Funk will probably be his starting quarterback for the rest of the season, although Dan Greenholt had held that spot until the Lancaster Catholic game. "We always felt that Funk had more ability," he said. "He only needed the experience."

Delone's probable starting lineup will be: center, Rodney Buntz; guards, Bob McMaster and Mark Yingling; tackles, Claude Zepp and Tom Smith; ends, Poist and Burnell Bevenour; quarterback, Funk; halfbacks, Don McKendrick and Ralph Hardman; and fullback, team captain Buddy Redding.

Terror Fullback

Lost For Season

A severe blow was dealt the Western Maryland College football team last Saturday when Warren McParque, 179-pound fullback, suffered a fractured leg as the Terrors bowed 24-0 to Penn Military College. McParque, who was completing his last year of eligibility after two years in the armed forces, will be lost for the remainder of the season.

Western Maryland is a future opponent of the Gettysburg College Bulldogs, being scheduled to play here November 13.

The United States uses about 80 million pounds of tea a year.

CALL PUPILS TO MASS MEETING IN SCHOOL FUSS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A mass meeting of all pupils was scheduled at stormy Anacostia High School in Washington today in an effort to end protests against mixing white persons and Negroes in classrooms in the national capital.

Officials and student leaders hoped the session would halt two days of noisy demonstrations in Washington and start a back-to-school movement similar to one already under way in nearby Baltimore.

Anacostia High has been the scene of the biggest demonstrations against the three-week-old program of racial integration in District of Columbia schools. Yesterday Police Lt. William T. Murphy said he felt "the peak of the disturbance is past" at Anacostia.

The police officer made the statement at day's end after more than 2,800 students were reported absent at one time or another from three high schools and six junior highs. Six persons were arrested near Anacostia High. Two men were held on charges of disorderly conduct. The others were released.

Disperse Meeting
During the day about 900 white students congregated in front of the Supreme Court Building, where the historic decision outlawing segregation in the public schools was handed down last May 17, but left quickly under police orders.

Exactly who or what was behind the demonstrations could not be determined. They appeared to be spontaneous imitations of recent mass protests against desegregation at Baltimore and at Milford, Del.

The Justice Department said it was "keeping an eye on the all-over situation," but a spokesman said the department's Civil Rights Section has not yet come across any violations of federal law. The department declined to say whether

Start Construction Soon On New Dam

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Construction of a reservoir dam on Perkiomen Creek at Green Lane in Montgomery County will commence "at an early date and should be completed during the latter part of 1966," a Philadelphia Suburban Water Co. spokesman said yesterday.

The dam was the subject of much controversy and prolonged litigation by neighboring communities and residents before the State Supreme Court finally turned down last June 24 a petition for a rehearing by those opposed to the project.

If S. Schutt said the contract for the 760-foot impounding dam had been let to J. A. Jones Construction Co., a New York and North Carolina firm.

er "outside forces" may be involved in the demonstrations. At Baltimore, firm handling by school and police officials, coupled with a Circuit Court decision, appeared to have quieted a series of student strikes, picketing and mass protests. Schools throughout the city reported the situation quiet.

Attendance was beginning to mount. Superior Judge James K. Cullen ruled that white and negro children may continue to go to public schools together.

GETS ARMY CONTRACT
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Mack Manufacturing Co. of Allentown, Pa., has been awarded an Army contract to make 1,630 five-ton trucks.

The Army announced yesterday that awards totaling 50 million dollars had been made for 4,630 of the trucks. The other 3,000 trucks will be built by International Harvester Co. of Chicago.

Los Angeles has an average of five cars for every four families.

NAAWP PLANS BATTLE ACROSS ENTIRE NATION

DOVER, Del. (AP) — A court attempt to revoke the charter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People has brought a promise from its president that the NAAWP will pursue its course throughout the country.

Bryant Bowles took this stand yesterday in Philadelphia after Delaware Atty. Gen. H. Albert Young began legal action in the Court of Chancery here to have the association's charter revoked.

Bowles said that if the association lost its charter in Delaware "we will go into the 47 other states and seek franchises, and further that, we will take to the U.S. mails."

Young said he based his attempt to have the charter revoked on the grounds that active NAAWP opposition to racial integration in the high school at Milford, Del., violated that section of its charter which promises to "promote and protect the constitutional guarantee of citizenship in the United States."

Chancellor Collins J. Sykes ordered the NAAWP to appear Oct. 22 to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued preventing it from further exercise of its corporate powers. He directed the attorney general's office to file a detailed complaint on or before Oct. 14 and gave the NAAWP until Oct. 20 to file a counterclaim.

Los Angeles has an average of five cars for every four families.

Hoover Honored Today At Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — It's homecoming day today for the Commerce Department's best-known alumnus, Herbert Hoover.

The former President, now 80 years old, was secretary of commerce from 1921 to 1928, before becoming Chief Executive.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks arranged ceremonies honoring his predecessor of 26 years ago. Some 600 employees who were on the department's payroll when Hoover was chief, and still are, were invited to a reunion in the departmental auditorium.

Hoover was scheduled to make a brief speech, and Weeks had a replica of the flag of the secretary of commerce to present to Hoover.

Exactly who or what was behind the demonstrations could not be determined. They appeared to be spontaneous imitations of recent mass protests against desegregation at Baltimore and at Milford, Del.

The Justice Department said it was keeping an eye on the all-over situation, but a spokesman said the department's Civil Rights Section has not yet come across any violations of federal law. The department declined to say whether "outside forces" may be involved in the demonstrations.

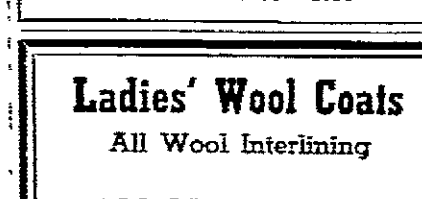

At Baltimore, firm handling by school and police officials, coupled with a Circuit Court decision, appeared to have quelled a series of student strikes, picketing and mass protests. Schools throughout the city reported the situation quiet. Attendance was beginning to mount.

Superior Judge James K. Cullen ruled that white and negro children may continue to go to public schools together.

Start Construction Soon On New Dam

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Construction of a reservoir dam on Perkiomen Creek at Green Lane in Montgomery County will commence "at an early date and should be completed during the latter part of 1956," a Philadelphia Suburban Water Co. spokesman said yesterday.

The dam was the subject of much controversy and prolonged litigation by neighboring communities and residents before the State Supreme Court finally turned down last June 24 a petition for a rehearing by those opposed to the project.

H. S. Schutt said the contract for the 780-foot impounding dam had been let to J. A. Jones Construction Co., a New York and North Carolina firm.

The increased demand for water last June and July, Schutt said, "emphasized the need for prompt action."

NAACP PLANS BATTLE ACROSS ENTIRE NATION

DOVER, Del. (AP) — A court attempt to revoke the charter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People has brought a promise from its president that the NAACP will pursue its course throughout the country.

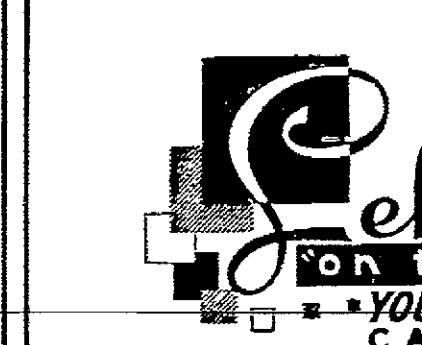

Bryant Bowles took this stand yesterday in Philadelphia after Delaware Atty. Gen. H. Albert Young began legal action in the Court of Chancery here to have the association's charter revoked. Bowles said that if the association lost its charter in Delaware "we will go into the 47 other states and seek franchises, and failing that, we will take to the U.S. mails."

Claimed Unconstitutional
Young said he based his attempt to have the charter revoked on the grounds that active NAACP opposition to racial integration in the high school at Milford, Del., violated that section of its charter which promises to "promote and protect the constitutional guarantees of citizenship in the United States."

Chancellor Collins J. Sykes ordered the NAACP to appear Oct. 22 to show cause why a preliminary injunction should not be issued preventing it from further exercise of its corporate powers. He directed the attorney general's office to file a detailed complaint on or before Oct. 14 and gave the NAACP until Oct. 20 to file a counterclaim.

350 Children And Others Use Parish Education Building Of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown

Perhaps one of the oldest and most beautiful churches in Carroll County is Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Taneytown. Last month the congregation dedicated a new parish education building.

Early in 1950 at a 200th anniversary celebration, Rev. Glenn L. Stahl, pastor, suggested the need of a new parish education building and minor repairs made to the church. Realizing the need, the 550 communicating members of the church raised, by donations, $53,000 in 1950 and 1951. Since there were no facilities available to serve suppers or hold other money-making events, the members of the church, since 1950, have donated to date $86,500.

5th Building Program

This is the fifth building program undertaken by the Trinity congregation during its long history. From 1750 to 1811, the congregation worshipped with the Reformed group in a union church. The first church used exclusively by the Lutheran congregation, was a brick structure 35 by 45 feet built on the present site and dedicated September 12, 1813. Major additions were dedicated on May 29, 1841; October 29, 1871 and May 9, 1897. Work on the new parish building was begun in the summer of 1953 and completed early in September, 1954.

The new addition, which adjoins the church, is a two-story brick and cast stone building 43 by 87 feet designed for parish education purposes.

Study And Play

The new parish education building, which includes 10 rooms, is used by nearly 350 children, ranging from nursery age through high school age. Sunday School classes and other Christian education studies are taught there.

For the beginners in the primary department, there is ample space for the children to study and to play. The junior department provides space for three Sunday School classes as does the high school department. Behind a venetian blind, in the high school department, there is an electric apartment-size stove, refrigerator and sink. These facilities are used by the various organizations for serving light refreshments after meetings. All the windows in the building are Cathedral double-rolled glass.

A large kitchen, on the first floor, used mainly for dinners and other social events features an electric Kewanee dishwasher, three coffee urns, a steam table, two Hotpoint electric ranges and many cupboards.

Have Small Chapel

Regular services have not yet been held in the new chapel on the first floor of the new building but plans have been made by the pastor to hold private communion services for the aged. The small chapel (14 pews) will also be used for weddings, funerals and daily meditation.

the parking problem that had confronted church members previously. The men of the congregation "rolled up their sleeves" and spread the stones over the parking area.

The only change made in the church building has been the replacement of new floor linoleum in the vestibule and adult Sunday School room which was laid by members of the congregation. On the second floor, in the church, a red Mohawk rug has been placed on the floor.

Rev. Stahl and the members of his congregation are to be congratulated on their lovely new parish house which they themselves have built by hard work.

9,000 FEET OF SEWER ARE LAID IN TANEYTOWN

More than 9,000 feet of pipe has been laid for the Taneytown Sanitary Sewer project it was announced today by Paul O'Shea, resident engineer for the contractors, W. F. Wilson and Son, Inc., Brookerville, Md.

To date, there has been 3,400 feet of eight-inch pipe laid, 4,000 feet of 12-inch pipe and 2,300 feet of 15-inch pipe.

Mr. O'Shea said that the work was on schedule and the project, which began June 29, 1954, should be finished March 1, 1955. If good weather prevails, the job may be finished by September 1955.

Three Crews At Work

At the present time, there are three crews employed by the contractors. They are working on East Baltimore Street, Frederick Street and Interceptor B.

The approximate cost is $638,000. It includes sewers throughout town, an interceptor sewer leading to the treatment plant and two pumping stations. A total of 28,250 feet of pipes will be used on the job.

Aside from striking rock, which slows the work down considerably, the trees on the sidewalks have presented a problem. A representative of the contractors said, "The price placed on digging up the individual householder did the work himself. We feel it is a good opportunity for all persons with brick paving to have the repaving done. Due to the dry conditions and all the new paving placed within the last few years, the trees in these paved areas have little change of living out the next few years and we feel they should come down. The trees, having a hard time finding water from the street side of houses, tend to find water in basements thus cracking walls and causing unhealthy living conditions." Thus far, nearly 65 percent of the property owners have consented to have the trees in front of their property cut down. Property owners must sign a release. If the trees are to remain, the contractors must tunnel through to connect the sewer.

Mr. O'Shea has asked that, before the sewer construction starts, the property owners notify him in regards to the location of their house connections. Mr. O'Shea's office is located above the Center Meat Market, East Baltimore Street, telephone Taneytown 3803.

YORK CORPORATION
Is Reorganized
YORK, Pa. (AP)—The company organization of the York Corp., manufacturer of refrigeration and air conditioning equipment, today is realigned into three self contained divisions.

The new organizational plan, announced yesterday by Stewart Lauer, president, divides the company into industrial, commercial and international divisions.

This is the first operational change in the company since 1928. Lauer said he was confident the new plan "should result in a substantial increase in consolidated sales volume."

The new divisions are headed by R. K. Serfass, industrial; J. K. Loudon, commercial, and C. B. Morrison, international.

350 Children And Others Use Parish Education Building Of Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown

Perhaps one of the oldest and most beautiful churches in Carroll County is Trinity Evangelical Lutheran Church, Taneytown. Last month the congregation dedicated a new parish education building.

Early in 1959 at a 200th anniversary celebration, Rev. Glenn L. Stahl, pastor, suggested the need of a new parish education building and minor repairs made to the church. Realizing the need, the 550 communicating members of the church raised, by donations, $53,000 in 1959 and 1961. Since there were no facilities available to serve suppers or hold other money-making events, the members of the church, since 1959, have donated to date $85,500.

5th Building Program
This is the fifth building program undertaken by the Trinity congregation during its long history. From 1750 to 1811, the congregation worshipped with the Reformed group in a Union church. The first church used exclusively by the Lutheran congregation, was a brick structure 25 or 45 feet built on the present site and dedicated September 12, 1813. Major additions were dedicated on May 29, 1841; October 29, 1871 and May 9, 1897. Work on the new parish building was begun in the summer of 1953 and completed early in September, 1964.

The new addition, which adjoins the church, is a two-story brick and cast stone building 43 by 87 feet designed for parish education purposes.

Study And Play
The new parish education building, which includes 10 rooms, is used by nearly 350 children, ranging from nursery age through high school age. Sunday School classes and other Christian education studies are taught there.

For the beginners in the primary department, there is ample space for the children to study and to play. The junior department provides space for three Sunday School classes as does the high school department. Behind a venetian blind, in the high school department, there is an electric apartment-size stove, refrigerator and sink. These facilities are used by the various organizations for serving light refreshments after meetings. All the windows in the building are Cathedral double-rolled glass.

A large kitchen, on the first floor, used mainly for dinners and other social events features an electric Kenmore dishwasher, three coffee urns, a steam table, two Hotpoint electric ranges and many cupboards.

Have Small Chapel
Regular services have not yet been held in the new chapel on the first floor of the new building but plans have been made by the pastor to hold private communion services for the aged. The small chapel (14 pews) will also be used for weddings, funerals and daily meditation.

The parish building also houses a pastor's study, Sunday School office, utility room, choir room, restrooms on each floor and a wall safe.

In the rear of the building is a large parking lot which eliminates the parking problem that had confronted church members previously. The members of the congregation "rolled up their sleeves" and spread the stones over the parking area.

The only change made in the church building has been the replacement of new floor linoleum in the vestibule and adult Sunday School room which was laid by members of the congregation. On the second floor, in the church, a red Mohawk rug has been placed on the floor.

Rev. Stahl and the members of his congregation are to be congratulated on their lovely new parish house which they themselves have built by hard work.

9,000 FEET OF SEWER ARE LAID IN TANEYTOWN

More than 9,000 feet of pipe has been laid for the Taneytown Sanitary Sewer project it was announced today by Paul O'Shea, resident engineer for the contractors, W. F. Wilson and Son, Inc., Brookville, Md.

To date, there has been 3,400 feet of eight-inch pipe laid, 4,000 feet of 12-inch pipe and 2,300 feet of 15-inch pipe.

Mr. O'Shea said that the work was on schedule and the project, which began June 29, 1964 should be finished March 1, 1965. If good weather prevails, the job may be finished by September 1965.

Three Crews At Work
At the present time, there are three crews employed by the contractors. They are working on East Baltimore Street, Frederick Street and Interceptor B.

The approximate cost is $638,000. It includes sewers throughout town, an interceptor sewer leading to the treatment plant, and two pumping stations. A total of 28,250 feet of pipes will be used on the job.

Aside from striking rock, which slows the work down considerably, the trees on the sidewalks have presented a problem. A representative of the contractors said, "The price placed on digging up the sidewalks is cheaper than if the individual householder did the work himself. We feel it is a good opportunity for all persons with brick paving to have the repaving done. Due to the dry conditions and all the new paving placed within the last few years, the trees in these paved areas have little chance of living out the next few years and we feel they should come down. The trees, having a hard time finding water on the street side of houses, tend to find water in basements thus cracking walls and causing unhealthy living conditions." Thus far, nearly 65 percent of the property owners have consented to have the trees in front of their property cut down. Property owners must sign a release. If the trees are to remain, the contractors must tunnel through to connect the sewer.

Mr. O'Shea has asked that, before the sewer construction starts, the property owners notify him in regards to the location of their house connections. Mr. O'Shea's office is located above the Center Meat Market East Baltimore Street, telephone Taneytown 3803.

York Corporation Is Reorganized

YORK, Pa. (P)—The company organization of the York Corp., manufacturer of refrigeration and air conditioning equipment, today is reorganized into three self-contained divisions.

The new organizational plan, announced yesterday by Stewart Lauer, president, divides the company into industrial, commercial and international divisions.

This is the first operational change in the company since 1933.

Lauer said he was confident the new plan "should result in a substantial increase in consolidated sales volume."

The new divisions are headed by R. K. Serfass, industrial; J. K. Louden, commercial; and C. B. Morrison, international.

ROTARY PLANS GIFT OF BOOKS AT LITTLESTOWN

Teachers of the Littlestown Joint School System were guests of the local Rotary Club at a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Schottie's Hotel. Dr. Donald B. Coover, president, extended a welcome to the teachers.

Robert Bagshaw, former principal of the Hanover High School, and the present owner and operator of Fisher's Stationery Store in Hanover, was the guest speaker.

He was introduced by A. G. Ealy, chairman of the community service committee, in charge of the program. Mr. Bagshaw addressed the group on the subject "Somebody is Important to Somebody at Some Time," and emphasized these three points: "Who has been important to you? To whom have you been important? Where have you failed to be important?" The invocation was offered by the Rev. David S. Kammerer. L. Robert Snyder led the group singing and Miss Marilyn Spangler was piano accompanist.

In observance of the Rotary Golden Anniversary Year, the Club decided to answer an appeal from the local community library for books for children and teenagers, as a community service project. It is hoped to give between 150 and 200 books. Each Rotarian is being asked to help by contributing from three to five books, and may do so by requesting novels of friends or making a cash donation for purchasing books. It is suggested that the books contributed be published since 1940. The donor's name may be placed in each book. This project began at last evening's meeting and will continue through November 2. Members of the community service committee: A. G. Ealy, Arthur E. Bair, Dr. Joseph R. Riden, Charles M. Weikert, A. W. Schott, William V. Sneeringer, S. Clair Trostle and Luther W. Ritter, will contact each Rotarian concerning the project.

Plan Visitation
The annual plant visitation will be conducted in conjunction with the Rotary meeting next week. The Rotarians will visit the Littlestown Throwing Company, Monarch St., at 5:15 p.m., on Tuesday. Arrangements are in charge of the vocational service committee, composed of Clarence R. Reck, chairman, George P. Smith, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Stanley B. Stover, Paul R. Snyder and Richard A. Little. Dinner will follow the visit, at 6:15 p.m. at Schottie's.

United Nations Week will be observed on Tuesday, Oct. 19, and the program will be in charge of the international service committee, Paul E. King, chairman.

The annual Forty Hours Devotions will be held in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, opening on Sunday morning, and will continue until the solemn closing on Tuesday evening. This year, there will be a Passionist Missionary priest to conduct the Forty Hours.

To Hold Party

Plans were made for the parents and teachers of the Children's Sunday School Department of Redeemer's Reformed Church to entertain the children at their annual Halloween party, at the monthly meeting on Monday evening, held in the church social hall. The date for the party was set for Monday, Oct. 25, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the social hall. It was decided to give the following costume prizes: Prettiest, ugliest, funniest and most original. Party decorations will be in charge of Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh and Miss Helen Jacobs will arrange the entertainment. Refreshments will be in charge of Mrs. Donald C. Arbogast and Mrs. Edward B. Geiman.

The meeting on Monday opened with the Scripture reading by Mrs. Robert H. Miller. The Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. Several piano solos were played by Marilyn Miller. The brief business session was in charge of Mrs. James R. Reindollar, in the absence of the president, L. William Collins. Reports were heard from Mrs. Arbogast, treasurer and Miss Jacobs, secretary. Thanks was extended to all those who helped in any way to make the supper so successful. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Reindollar and Mrs. Miller.

The next regular meeting of the parents and teachers will be held on Monday, November 1, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth K. Kroh, near town.

Baptize Children

Jean Elizabeth and Joan Louise Pittenturf, twin daughters of Ray and Onelda Humbert Pittenturf, Boyer St., were baptized on Saturday afternoon in Redeemer's Reformed Church, by the former pastor, the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, who is now pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Reading. The parents were the baptismal sponsors. The children were born August 30 at the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

The following books were recently contributed to the Littlestown Free Lending Library by Mrs. Theron W. Spangler, Patrick Ave.: "The Campfire Girls as Detectives," "The Corner Store," Albert Idell; "Dark Wood," Christine Weston; "Seed of Mischief," Willa Gibbs; "The Townsman," John Sedger. Four new subscribers were received at the library during the month of September, and 55 books were borrowed last month. The library, located on N. Queen St., is open each Monday evening.

Mrs. Stanley Horner, M. St., will be hostess to the Mothers Sunday School Class of St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, for the October meeting on Friday at 8 p.m. Mrs. Wade D. Brown and Mrs. Harold Bowman will assist as hostesses. Each member is requested to bring a plant for the plant auction.

LOYALTY CLASS HOLDS MEETING IN LITTLESTOWN

The Loyalty Sunday School class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church voted a contribution of $25 to the Christian Endeavor Society of the church, at the October meeting held on Monday evening in the church social hall. The donation is to take care of the expenses of light refreshments for serving each week following the C. E. meetings.

Group singing opened the meeting followed by scripture reading, Mrs. Paul Mayers; prayer, Mrs. Cora Heltbride; group song; report by Mrs. Vernon J. Study, secretary. The Halloween theme was carried out in the program, as follows: Piano duet selections, Patsy Harner and Dorothy Forsythe; reading, Mrs. Claude White; vocal solo, Brenda Worley; reading, Mrs. William R. Keefe; piano solo, Mrs. Robert Mayers; Halloween drawing game won by Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hill, Mrs. A. G. Ealy and Mrs. George Rhoades; marching game, with prizes being received by Mrs. Joseph Cookson, Mrs. James V. Yingling, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Roger J. Keefe and Mrs. Charles Slusser. The guess package, given by Mrs. Cookson was received by Mrs. Paul Mayers.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Charles Slusser, president, during which time plans were made for a Halloween party for the children of the Nursery and Primary Departments of the Sunday School. The date will be set by the teachers of the two departments. Committees from the class to assist with the nursery party are Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Aaron Rohrbach, Mrs. L. Robert Snyder and Mrs. George Rhoades; for the primary party, Mrs. Robert W. Gouker, Mrs. Joseph P. Long and Mrs. Robert Gitt.

Plan Banquet

Preliminary arrangements were made for the annual November banquet of the Loyalty class and the men's class taught by Luther D. Snyder. Committees for the banquet were appointed as follows: Time and place committee, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Mrs. Howard Trostle, and Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon; program, Mrs. L. Robert Snyder, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Joseph P. Long and Mrs. A. G. Ealy. A committee to secure estimates for shrubbery to be placed in front of the church includes Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner and Mrs. Raymond A. Geisler. Mrs. George Schaeffer was selected to make inquiries concerning publication of a birthday calendar.

During the social hour, refreshments, in keeping with the Halloween theme, were served by the members of group six, including Mrs. J. Robert Sell, chairman, Mrs. Robert Mayers, Mrs. Harold Messinger, Mrs. Claude White, Mrs. Milton Harner, Mrs. Cora Heltbride and Mrs. William R. Keefe.

The next class meeting after the banquet, will be held on Monday, December 6 at the church, and will be in charge of a group composed of Mrs. Walter I. DeGroft, chairman, Mrs. J. Donald Lemmon, Mrs. Robert B. DeGroft, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Herman Newman, Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz, Mrs. G. Richard Knipple, Mrs. Richard A. Mailand and Mrs. Joseph P. Long.

Firemen Entertain

Over a hundred members of the Kingsdale Fire Company, Ladies' Auxiliary and all others who assisted in any way at the firemen's carnival in August, enjoyed a party held on Saturday night at the engine house. There were brief remarks by several members of the company, concerning the success of this year's carnival.

John Lippy, Gettysburg, entertained with magic tricks. Several reels of motion pictures were shown. Instrumental selections were played by Howard Petry and Edgar A. Wolfe. Refreshments were served to the group. The committee on arrangements for the affair included Harry Hess, Edgar A. Wolfe and Alvin J. Groft.

The October meeting of the Carroll-Adams Riding Club will be held on Thursday evening, 7:30 o'clock, in the club house at Sunset Hill Farm, near town.

Members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion will attend the quarterly meeting of the Four County Council of Legion Auxiliaries, to be held on Thursday morning and afternoon in Dallastown.

List Meetings
Mrs. Carrie Stultz, N. Queen St., will be hostess to the Frances Segner Missionary Society of St. Paul's (Continued on Page 5)

ANNOUNCING A NEW

FARM SERVICE

NOW WE BRING THE MILL TO THE FARM

OUR "ON THE FARM" FEED SERVICE MIXES YOUR FAVORITE FORMULAS—FROM YOUR HOME-GROWN INGREDIENTS RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES!

SAVE MONEY ON THE COST OF FEED—YET MAKE FRESH MIXED FEEDS AVAILABLE TO YOUR STOCK ALL YEAR AROUND.

That's what you do when you use our new mobile feed service. It works this way:

Telephone us or drop us a postcard and we bring a complete mill on wheels right to your farmyard. Using your own home-grown ingredients—and we can handle anything from corn cobs to hay—we grind and mix your feed right before your eyes. Use your own favorite formulas . . . or we will advise you.

It's as easy for our mill-on-wheels to blend in molasses as it is for a duck to swim. Remember—adding molasses to low-cost feeds gives results in weight increases equal to those obtained from high-cost grain.

ROTARY PLANS GIFT OF BOOKS AT LITTLESTOWN

Teachers of the Littlestown Joint School System were guests of the local Rotary Club at a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at Scholastic Hotel. Dr. Donald B. Coover, president, extended a welcome to the teachers.

Robert Bagshaw, former principal of the Hanover High School, and the present owner and operator of Fisher's Stationery Store in Hanover, was the guest speaker. He was introduced by A. G. Ealy, chairman of the community service committee, in charge of the program. Mr. Bagshaw addressed the group on the subject "Somebody Is Important to Somebody at Some Time" and emphasized these three points: "Who has been important to you? To whom have you been important? Where have you failed to be important?" The invocation was offered by the Rev. David S. Kammerer. L. Robert Snyder led the group singing and Miss Marilyn Spangler was piano accompanist.

An observance of the Rotary Golden Anniversary Year, the Club decided to answer an appeal from the local community library for books for children and teenagers, as a community service project. It is hoped to give between 150 and 200 books. Each Rotarian is being asked to help by contributing from three to five books, and may do so by requesting novels or friends or making a cash donation for purchasing books. It is suggested that the books contributed be published since 1940. The donor's name may be placed in each book. This project began at last evening's meeting and will continue through November 2. Members of the community service committee: A. G. Ealy, Arthur E. Barr, Dr. Joseph R. Riden, Charles M. Welker, A. W. Schott, William V. Sneringer, S. Clair Trostle and Luther W. Ritter. Mr. Ritter will contact each Rotarian concerning the project.

Plan Visitation. The annual plant visitation will be conducted in conjunction with the Rotary meeting next week. The Rotarians will visit the Littlestown Throwing Company, Monarch St., at 5:15 p.m., on Tuesday. Arrangements are in charge of the vocational service committee, composed of Clarence R. Beck, chairman, George P. Smith, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Stanley B. Sover, Paul R. Snyder and Richard A. Little. Dinner will follow the visit, at 6:15 p.m. at Scholastic.

United Nations Week will be observed on Tuesday, Oct. 19, and the program will be in charge of the international service committee, Paul E. King, chairman.

The annual Forty Hours Devotions will be held in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, opening on Sunday morning, and will continue until the solemn closing on Tuesday evening. This year, there will be a Passionist Missionary priest to conduct the Forty Hours.

LOYALTY CLASS HOLDS MEETING IN LITTLESTOWN

The Loyalty Sunday School class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church voted a contribution of $25 to the Christian Endeavor Society of the church, at the October meeting held on Monday evening in the church social hall. The donation is to take care of the expenses of light refreshments for serving each week following the C. E. meetings.

Group singing opened the meeting followed by scripture reading, Mrs. Paul Mayers; prayer, Mrs. Cora Helms; group song; report by Mrs. Vernon J. Studer, secretary. The Halloween theme was carried out in the program, as follows: Piano duet selections, Patsy Harner and Dorothy Forsythe; reading, Mrs. Claude White; vocal solo, Brenda Worley; reading, Mrs. William R. Keefe; piano solo, Mrs. Robert Mayers; Halloween drawing game won by Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hill, Mrs. A. G. Ealy and Mrs. George Rhoades; marching game, with prizes being received by Mrs. Joseph Cookson, Mrs. James V. Vingling, Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Roger J. Keefe and Mrs. Charles Sussner. The guest package, given by Mrs. Cookson was received by Mrs. Paul Mayers.

The business session was conducted by Mrs. Charles Sussner, president, during which time plans were made for a Halloween party for the children of the Nursery and Primary Departments of the Sunday School. The date will be set by the teachers of the two departments. Committees from the class to assist with the nursery party are Mrs. George Schaeffer, Mrs. Aaron Rohrbach, Mrs. L. Robert Snyder and Mrs. George Rhoades; for the primary party, Mrs. Robert W. Gouker, Mrs. Joseph P. Long and Mrs. Robert Gitt.

Plan Banquet. Preliminary arrangements were made for the annual November banquet of the Loyalty class and the men's class taught by Luther D. Snyder. Committees for the banquet were appointed as follows: Time and place committee, Mrs. Luther W. Ritter, Mrs. Howard Trostle and Mrs. J. Donald Lem-

REPUBLICAN RALLY PLANNED FOR OCTOBER 19

A Republican community rally, sponsored by the Northern York County Council of Republican Women, will be held Tuesday, October 19, at 8 p.m. in the Dillsburg Community Building.

Party candidates expected to be in attendance include: S. Walter Stauffer, representative in Congress from the 19th Pennsylvania district; candidates for the State Senate, Roy W. Smith, Dillsburg, and Russell F. Griest, candidate for the General Assembly. Mrs. Irene Isenhardt, York, well known entertainer, will also be present at the October 19 meeting here.

WCTU Installs

A candlelight service was observed in the installation of officers at the first local WCTU meeting of the year's program. Mrs. J. Harold Reaick Sr., Mrs. John Baish and Mrs. Jeannette Harding gave a report on the York County convention held in York, last Tuesday.

Hostesses and leaders and chairmen for departments of projects were appointed for the 1954-55 season. A social hour with refreshments followed the business meeting. New books placed in the Northern High School library by the local WCTU are "It's Smarter Not To Drink"; "101 Facts About Alcohol"; "Alcohol and the Wheel"; "What Alcohol Is and What It Does" and "Answers to Alcohol."

Mrs. Florence Wiley, Dillsburg, flew to New Hampshire recently to attend the wedding of her niece, Donna Wolf, to John Morris in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Salem, New Hampshire.

Local dairymen attended a meeting last week in Dillsburg Community Hall at which time a feed company representative of the district showed a film "What Can We Do to Improve Our Dairy Operation?" The Dillsburg Grain and Milling Co. sponsored the meeting.

Visit Children's Home

The youth of Dillsburg and Wellsburg Methodist Churches visited the Home for Children, Mechanicsburg, Friday evening and Saturday morning to set up a booth with the articles their members gave to the home, to compete with other Methodist churches in displaying the gifts.

Rally Day was held at Dillsburg Methodist Church Sunday, October 3, with Emory Guise, former superintendent of the Methodist Church, York Springs, as guest speaker.

The WSCS of the Methodist Church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Schaffer.

Twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Slyder, Dillsburg R. 3, at Seidle Memorial Hospital, Mechanicsburg, September 28. Mrs. Slyder was Mary Ann Minnick of Mt. Holly Springs.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Grove, Dillsburg, September 27 at Carlisle Hospital. Mrs. Grove was Darlene Smith, Dillsburg.

Skating Party Tonight

The Senior Class of Northern High School will have a skating party at Haas's Skating Rink this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.

On October 16, a baked ham family-style supper will be sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of Franklin-town and Community Fire Company, serving from 4 until 9 p.m. in the Community Hall. Bingo will follow the meal.

The Future Homemakers of America met recently at Northern High School to elect officers for the 1954-55 term, which are as follows:

YORK SPRINGS BIRTHDAY PARTY HELD FOR BOY, 6

S.S. DISTRICT PLANS SCHOOL AT DILLSBURG

Plans have been completed for the Standard Leadership Training School to be held at the Northern High School, Dillsburg, for five consecutive Mondays, beginning October 11, under the sponsorship of the Upper District Sabbath School Association.

Three of the six instructors will commute from Harrisburg. Mrs. Charles Hauser will teach "Missionary Education in The Local Church" in a course of study affecting all departments of the Sunday School and church. Mrs. John Holsinger will teach "Storytelling in Christian Education," which will be of special interest to parents and to teachers of kindergarten, primary and junior classes; Rev. Clarence J. Varner, director of youth work for the Pennsylvania Sabbath School Association, will teach "Helping Young People Develop Christian Beliefs," which will be of interest to parents, leaders of young people's organizations, and teachers of classes of young people.

The three other courses will be taught by local ministers. Rev. James Nace, Wellsburg, will teach "Christian Evangelism" for persons of all ages. Rev. Monroe J. Shearer Sr., president of the York County Sabbath School Association, will teach "Ways of Teaching," which

Firemen To Give "Follies" Next Week

On October 14 and 15, Thursday and Friday, at 8 p.m. the Citizens Hose Co. of Dillsburg will sponsor a musical revue entitled "Funny-bone Follies."

The show, which is comprised entirely of local talent, will be presented in the Community Memorial Building, with show time at 8 p.m. Adult donations are 85 cents, and children 40 cents.

Featured in the follies will be a "Ma and Pa Kettle" routine, impersonations of Jerry Lewis and Dean Martin; Groucho Marx and Doris Day; a tribute to the flag between acts; a bubble ballet; a "Woman's Wedding" and a Roy Rogers and Dale Evans number. Also there will be various singing and dancing acts. Miss Winifred Kelly of Pittsburgh, is directing the show.

will be special instruction to Sunday School teachers and to parents. The annual Biblical course will be taught by Rev. William T. Swain Jr. on the subject "The New Testament: Its Content And Value."

Each course will be taught for ten fifty-minute periods on five consecutive Monday nights.

Receiving Registrations

Registrations are being received by Douglas J. Harter, registrar, and by Lawrence Evans, assistant registrar, both of Dillsburg. The registration fee is $1.00, and it is anticipated that these fees will be paid by the Sunday Schools.

Dean of the school is Rev. Monroe J. Shearer Sr. The Curriculum Committee is composed of Rev. William T. Swain Jr., chairman; Sylvan Speck, chairman of the Executive Board of the Upper District Sabbath School Association; and Dean Shearer.

Members of the Publicity Committee include Alton Zarby, chairman, Rev. James R. Nace, Baird Knaub, president of the U. D. S. S. A., and a key person in each Sunday School. Persons on the Finance Committee include: Charles Grove, chairman, Scott Dick, Rev. E. Belmont Metzger, and Glenn Snyder.

REPUBLICAN RALLY PLANNED FOR OCTOBER 19

A Republican community rally, sponsored by the Northern York County Council of Republican Women, will be held Tuesday, October 19, at 8 p.m. in the Dillsburg Community Building.

Party candidates expected to be in attendance include: S. Walter Scauffer, representative in Congress from the 19th Pennsylvania district; candidates for the State Senate, Roy W. Smith, Dillsburg, and Russell F. Griest, candidate for the General Assembly. Mrs. Irene Isenhardt, York, well known entertainer, will also be present at the October 19 meeting here.

WCTU Installs

A candlelight service was observed in the installation of officers at the first local WCTU meeting of the year's program. Mrs. J. Harold Reardon Sr., Mrs. John Baish and Mrs. Jeannette Harding gave a report on the York County convention held in York, last Tuesday.

Hostesses and leaders and chairmen for departments of projects were appointed for the 1954-55 season. A social hour with refreshments followed the business meeting. New books placed in the Northern High School library by the local WCTU are "It's Smarter Not To Drink," "101 Facts About Alcohol," "Alcohol at the Wheel," "What Alcohol Is and What It Does" and "Answers to Alcohol."

Mrs. Florence Wiley, Dillsburg, flew to New Hampshire recently to attend the wedding of her niece, Donna Wolf, to John Morris in St. Joseph Catholic Church, Salem, New Hampshire.

Local dairymen attended a meeting last week in Dillsburg Community Hall at which time a seed company representative of the district showed a film "What Can We Do to Improve Our Dairy Operation?" The Dillsburg Grain and Milling Co. sponsored the meeting.

Visit Children's Home

The youth of Dillsburg and Wellsburg visited the Children's Home for Children, Mechanicsburg, Friday evening and Saturday morning to set up a booth with the articles their members gave to the home, to compete with other Methodist churches in displaying the gifts.

Rally Day was held at Dillsburg Methodist Church Sunday, October 3, with Emory Guise, former superintendent of the Methodist Church, York Springs, as guest speaker.

The WSCS of the Methodist Church met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Schaeffer.

COHN DINNER OPENS DEFENSE FOR MCCARTHY

BALTIMORE (AP)—A testimonial dinner honoring Sen. McCarthy's former chief aide touched off last night what sponsors hope will be a nationwide "march on Washington" to save McCarthy from censure by the Senate.

Roy M. Cohn, who resigned as counsel for McCarthy's investigations subcommittee after the "red" row between the Wisconsin Republican Senator and the Army Department, was honored by 675 persons at the $6-a-plate dinner here.

His speech and those of half a dozen others on the program were keyed to the defense of McCarthy and his fight against communism.

Convocation On Nov. 8

Rabbi Benjamin Schultz of New York, toastmaster, urged the audience to "join thousands of people from all over the country at a solemn, dignified convocation in Washington on Nov. 11 to protest the smear of anti-Communists."

"On Nov. 8 the Senate is scheduled to reconvene to consider a special committee recommendation that McCarthy be censured."

Headed by Sen. Watkins (R-Utah), the committee said it had found that McCarthy showed contempt of the 1952 Senate Elections subcommittee and used vulgar language about a member of that group. It also formally accused him of abusing Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker when he appeared before the McCarthy subcommittee.

Answer On Zwicker

The Watkins committee, said Cohn when his turn came on the five-hour dinner program, "was constituted for the sole purpose of getting McCarthy's scalp."

The contempt charge against McCarthy, Cohn said, was "answered in 1952, when the voters of Wisconsin heard his side of the story and re-elected him by over half a million votes—the biggest majority ever given to a candidate in a Wisconsin senate election."

McCarthy's questioning of Zwicker, he added, resulted from the senator's "devotion to his country in what he believed to be his duty."

TREMENDOUS STRUGGLE ON IN NEW YORK FOR GOVERNOR

Editor's Note—This is another of several stories by roving Associated Press reporters analyzing the campaign in key states.

By RELMAN MORIN
NEW YORK (AP)—The governor of New York directs the public affairs of more people than most of the heads of state in the world. His state sends the largest delegation to Congress. He normally holds the key to the biggest bloc of votes in a national convention. And the Statehouse in Albany has sometimes led to a nomination to the White House.

In short, the governor's office is a huge repository of political power.

Big Struggle
The battle for it this year shapes up as a tremendous struggle for a potential seven million or more votes. And the appearance of new factors complicates the equation.

The major one arose when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey announced that he would not run again this fall. He had held the office for three terms. Now the Democrats profess to see the end of their long, dry spell—and they are going all out to seed the political rain clouds.

But their candidate, Averell Harriman, is a totally unknown factor as a votegetter, whereas the Republican candidate, U.S. Sen. Irving M. Ives topped President Eisenhower's New York plurality in 1952.

Stirs Wide Interest
This election is stirring wide interest because of such factors as—

1. The Democratic ticket is an all-New York City slate, although Harriman has residences elsewhere. What effect will that have on the upstate vote?

2. How will Ives be affected by the policies of the Eisenhower administration? Will they cost him votes in the industrial areas and on the dairy farms?

3. The Democratic convention closed in apparent party harmony, and Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., who opposed Harriman, accepted the nomination for attorney general. But will there be any bitter after-effects?

(Some analysts speculate he may run ahead of Harriman.)

Ike To Take Hand
4. The President is scheduled for two appearances here, Oct. 20 and 21. Will some of his popularity rub off on Ives?
Politically, New York is two "states" about equal in size but different in complexion. In 1952, Ives pulled a 1,300,000 plurality upstate. But in New York City, he was a bare 2,500 ahead of the Democratic candidate, while another half-million votes were cast for Liberal and American Labor party candidates.

Democrats Bank On City
This year, Ives says, the Democrats "hope to roll up such a plurality in the city that the rest of the state will be powerless to offset it."

However, he says he sees hope for some political capital in the situation. He was quick to express public indignation over what he called Democratic efforts to create a "cleavage" between New York City and the rest of the state.

In any case, the Democrats appear to be banking heavily on the city, to which the GOP can cry "T. A. M. A. N. A. dictatorship" and paint a picture of the metropolitan colossus dominating the rest of the state.

Ives said he intends to campaign on the records of Dewey's administration and "to a lesser extent" on Eisenhower's. He said it is too early to determine which issues will emerge as predominant.

Harriman mapped plans to attack Ives' voting record in Congress and through him, the GOP's national record.

Harriman accuses the Republicans, on state and national levels, of "callous indifference" to the job problem. The percentage is higher in New York than it is for the nation as a whole.

Neither so far has gone deeply into the argument over farm policy. The vote in the state's "milkshed" could be at stake. Dairy-men's organizations oppose the administration's position on price supports. But you hear conflicting opinions from individual dairy-men.

The GOP holds 27 of the state's 43 congressional seats. Leonard W. Hall, GOP national chairman, predicted the lineup will be the same in November. Democratic leaders forecast a net gain of four seats.

ORGANIZE TO CUT TOLL OF HOME POISONS

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter
CHICAGO (AP)—A new medical effort is being organized against a potential danger in your own home—the accidental poisoning of children by swallowing common household materials like furniture polish and bleaching agents.

Spearheaded by a group of Chicago doctors who have set up a "poisoning control center," similar projects are operating or being developed in Boston, Cincinnati, New York, Phoenix and Washington, D.C., the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

The idea is to have a systematic, centrally controlled network within a city whereby quickest action can be taken in treating a poisoned child and follow-up steps can be taken to try to prevent possible recurrences or independently new instances of the same emergency.

Aspirin, Kerosene Lead
Dr. Edward Press of the University of Illinois and several associates described the Chicago program in a scientific exhibit at the AAP's 23rd annual meeting. Dr. Robert B. Mellins of the U.S. Public Health Service, who is participating in the Chicago program, supplied further details.

They said the commonest substances swallowed among 375 children treated for poisoning in the last year in Chicago were aspirin; petroleum products such as kerosene; rodent killers and insecticides; bleaching agents; and turpentine.

With the Chicago Board of Health acting as a clearing house for information and follow-up action, some 20 hospitals in the Chicago area have been supplied with an 80-page manual outlining poisonous constituents of various household materials and the most recent approved methods of treatment.

Individual doctors who might be house-called on a poison case can call a "Poison Control Committee" member at the Board of Health or one of the participating hospitals if he needs help.

"We're prepared," Dr. Mellins told a reporter, "to contact the manufacturer of a given household product in case its chemical constituents—and hence possible antidotes—may not be immediately known."

"We would like," he added, "to stimulate clearer labeling on various products and, in the case of the more dangerous substances, precautionary warnings which would help remind parents of the potential danger of carelessly placing such products within reach of children."

Say Red Chinese Troops Returned

TOKYO (AP)—North Korea's Pyongyang radio announced today that 87,894 Red Chinese soldiers—who made up the seven divisions of "volunteers" in the Korean War—have now been pulled back into China.

The Red broadcast, monitored here, said the last troops crossed into Manchuria Oct. 3.

Divorced Couple Held In Slaying

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—Police are holding a divorced couple for questioning in the slaying of A/2C Woodrow Conrad, Alburts, Pa., resident who was stabbed to death Tuesday night.

Police identified the man held for questioning, on a vagrancy charge, as Lewis L. Smith, 35. They said the stabbing occurred in a home which was listed as the address for Smith and his divorced wife. Detectives said she had been in the company of Conrad at a tavern earlier.

Conrad was stationed at nearby Forbes Air Force Base.

"Skill Ball" Games Chancy, Judge Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Santa Monica's "skill ball" games, a judge has found, are much too chancy to be a matter of skill.

Superior Judge Frank G. Swain, who tried 'em on the spot, ruled yesterday that the games violated the California law.

The average player, said the judge, was not prepared to compete "any more than I could compete against Joe Louis."

TAMPAHONORING AL LOPEZ TODAY

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—This is Al Lopez day in Tampa, the day of the official welcome for the manager of the Cleveland Indians.

Lopez returned yesterday but city officials agreed to give him a day at home before putting on the big celebration.

Dedication of Tampa's new baseball park as Al Lopez Field was the first event on the day's programs. Mayor Curtis Hixon will present keys to the field and to the city to the hometown baseball star.

TO COME HOME

TOKYO (AP)—The 307th Medium Bomb Wing, the last remaining B29 group in the Strategic Air Command in the Far East, will return late this month from Okinawa to the United States to be re-equipped with B47 jet bombers, the Air Force said today.

The present Turkish republic was started in 1953.

U.S. MAY AWAIT FRENCH ACTION ON EUROPE PLAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration probably will wait until after the French Assembly has acted before it asks the Senate to approve agreements making Germany a partner in the Atlantic Alliance.

That would mean that the package deal worked out in London last week would not be presented before the new session of Congress beginning in January.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee predicted yesterday that the agreements, insofar as they require U.S. action, would be approved at special Senate session next month if they were submitted by that time.

May Wait And See
However, there is a strong feeling among State Department officials that the United States should not take the lead in giving final approval to the London plan, as it did in 1952 in confirming the European Defense Community program.

The French Assembly stalled on that until last month, when it finally killed off EDC. The sentiment here now is to wait and see what action the French Assembly takes on the new program.

Moreover, the agreements still have to be worked out in detail and to be acted on, at least in part, by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council, which is scheduled to meet late this month.

TREMENDOUS STRUGGLE ON IN NEW YORK FOR GOVERNOR

By BELMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP)—The governor of New York directs the public affairs of more people than most of the heads of state in the world. His state serves the largest delegation to Congress. He normally holds the key to the biggest bloc of votes in a national convention. And the Statehouse in Albany has sometimes led to a nomination to the White House.

In short, the governor's office is a huge repository of political power.

Big Struggle

The battle for it this year shapes up as a tremendous struggle for a potential seven million or more votes. And the appearance of new factors complicates the equation.

The major one arose when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey announced that he would not run again this fall. He had held the office for three terms. Now the Democrats profess to see the end of their long dry spell—and they are going all out to seed the political rain clouds.

But their candidate, Averell Harriman, is a totally unknown factor as a votegetter, whereas the Republican candidate, U.S. Sen. Irving M. Ives topped President Eisenhower's New York plurality in 1952.

Stirs Wide Interest

This election is stirring wide interest because of such factors as:

1. The Democratic ticket is an all-New York City slate, although Harriman has residences elsewhere. What effect will that have on the upstate vote?
2. How will Ives be affected by the policies of the Eisenhower administration? Will they cost him votes in the industrial areas and on the dairy farms?
3. The Democratic convention closed in apparent party harmony, and Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., who opposed Harriman, so-cepted the nomination for attorney general. But will there be any bitter after-effects?

Ives To Take Hand

The President is scheduled for two appearances here, Oct. 20 and 21. Will some of his popularity rub off on Ives?

Politically, New York is two "states" about equal in size but different in complexion. In 1952, Ives pulled a 1,300,000 plurality. But in New York City, he was a bare 2,500 ahead of the Democratic candidate, while another half-million votes were cast for Liberal and American Labor party candidates.

Democrats Bank On City

This year, Ives says, the Democrats "hope to roll up such a plurality in the city that the rest of the state will be powerless to offset it."

However, he says he sees hope for some political capital in the situation. He was quick to express public indignation over what he called Democratic efforts to create a "cleavage" between New York City and the rest of the state.

In any case, the Democrats appear to be banking heavily on the city, so which the GOP can cry "Tammany dictatorship" and paint a picture of the metropolitan colossus dominating the rest of the state.

Ives said he intends to campaign on the records of Dewey's administration and "to a lesser extent" on Eisenhower's. He said it is too early to determine which issues will emerge as predominant.

Harriman mapped plans to attack Ives' voting record in Congress and through him, the GOP's national record.

Harriman accuses the Republicans, on state and national levels, of "callous indifference" to the job problem. The percentage is higher in New York than it is for the nation as a whole.

Neither so far has gone deeply into the argument over farm policy. The vote in the state's "milkshed" could be at stake. Dairy men's organizations oppose the administration's position on price supports. But you hear conflicting opinions from individual dairy men.

The GOP holds 27 of the state's 43 congressional seats. Leonard W. Hall, GOP national chairman, predicted the lineup will be the same and Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., who opposed Harriman, so-lost Ives' voting record in Congress and through him, the GOP's national record.

ORGANIZE TO CUT TOLL OF HOME POISONS

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CHICAGO (AP)—A new medical effort is being organized against a potential danger in your own home—the accidental poisoning of children by swallowing common household materials like furniture polish and bleaching agents.

Spearheaded by a group of Chicago doctors who have set up a "poisoning control center," similar projects are operating or being developed in Boston, Cincinnati, New York, Phoenix and Washington, D.C., the American Academy of Pediatrics was told today.

The idea is to have a systematic, centrally controlled network within a city whereby quickest action can be taken in treating a poisoned child and follow-up steps can be taken to try to prevent possible recurrences or independently new instances of the same emergency.

Aspirin, Kerosene Lead

Dr. Edward Press of the University of Illinois and several associates described the Chicago program in a scientific exhibit at the AAP's 23rd annual meeting. Dr. Robert B. Mellins of the U.S. Public Health Service, who is participating in the Chicago program, supplied further details.

They said the commonest substances swallowed among 375 children treated for poisoning in the last year in Chicago were aspirin; petroleum products such as kerosene; rodent killers and insecticides; bleaching agents; and turpentine.

With the Chicago Board of Health acting as a clearing house for information and follow-up action, some 50 hospitals in the Chicago area have been supplied with an 80-page manual outlining poisonous constituents of various household materials and the most recent approved methods of treatment.

Individual doctors who might be house-called on a poison case can call a "Poison Control Committee" member at the Board of Health or one of the participating hospitals if he needs help.

"We're prepared," Dr. Mellins told a reporter, "to contact the manufacturer of a given household product in case its chemical constituents—and hence possible antidotes—may not be immediately known."

Say Red Chinese Troops Returned

TOKYO (AP)—North Korea's Pyongyang radio announced today that 87,894 Red Chinese soldiers—who made up the seven divisions of "volunteers" in the Korean War—have now been pulled back into China.

The Red broadcast, monitored here, said the last troops crossed into Manchuria Oct. 3.

"Skill Ball" Games Chancy, Judge Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Santa Monica's "skill ball" games, a judge has found, are much too chancy to be a matter of skill.

Superior Judge Frank G. Swain, who tried "em on the spot, ruled yesterday that the games violated the California law.

U.S. MAY AWAIT FRENCH ACTION ON EUROPE PLAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration probably will wait until after the French Assembly has acted before it asks the Senate to approve agreements making Germany a partner in the Atlantic Alliance.

That would mean that the package deal worked out in London last week would not be presented before the new session of Congress beginning in January.

Chairman Wiley (R-Wis) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee predicted yesterday that the agreements, insofar as they require U.S. action, would be approved at special Senate session next month if they were submitted by that time.

May Wait And See

However, there is a strong feeling among State Department officials that the United States should not take the lead in giving final approval to the London plan, as it did in 1952 in confirming the European Defense Community program.

The French Assembly stalled on that until last month, when it finally killed off EDC. The sentiment here now is to wait and see what action the French Assembly takes on the new program.

Moreover, the agreements still have to be worked out in detail and to be acted on, at least in part, by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council, which is scheduled to meet late this month.

TAMPA HONORING AL LOPEZ TODAY

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—This is Al Lopez' day in Tampa, the day of the official welcome for the manager of the Cleveland Indians.

Lopez returned yesterday but city officials agreed to give him a day at home before putting on the big celebration.

Dedication of Tampa's new baseball park at Al Lopez Field was the first event on the day's programs. Mayor Curtis Hixon will present keys to the field and to the city to the hometown baseball star.
